Bill to Regulate Their Sale of Liquor

MUST SECURE LICENSES

PROVISIONS OF MEASURE SUBMITTED TO LEGISLATURE BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL—THREE MEMBERS OF OPPOSITION TAKE PART IN DEBATE

(Special to The Daily News.)
VICTORIA, Jan. 26.—The debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne was continued this afternoon by G. R. Naden, Greenwood; Dr. W. T. Kergin, Skeena, and J. M. Yorston, Cariboo, for the opposition and W. H. Hayward, Cowichan for the government. A. E. McPhillips, K. C., the Island, moved the adjournment of the debate.

The opposition speakers devoted their remarks mainly to a review of the conditions in their respective constituencies. Mr. Yorston in a quaintly humorous speech kept the house in roars of laughter as he told of the work of the government road builders. Mr. Hayward's speech was notable for a vigorous attack upon the government's present fiscal policy in so far as the rural municipalities are concerned. He dealt principally with the question of the cost of school maintenance and alleged that, under existing conditions, whereby personal property, income and poll taxes, all went into the provincial treasury, rural municipalities were unfairly handicapped and the application of present school law was a failure so far as rural municipalities are concerned. The same speaker, dealing with the liquor license law, said that, in his opinion, what was absolutely necessary today was the appointment of one or more inspectors whose duty it would be to examine and analyze all liquor offered for sale, as he believed that much of the stuff offered for sale was doctored and poisonous.

Hon. R. G. Taffel, finance minister, presented a return of the special warrants signed by the lieutenant governor together with the expenditure thereon between May, 1908, and Jan. 25, 1909, which showed that the warrants amounted to a total of $707,750 of which $229,668.39 had been expended.

Hon. W. J. Bowser, attorney general, introduced bills as follows: An act to authorize a revision of the Statutes of British Columbia and an act to license Clubs to sell intoxicating liquors. The main provisions of the latter bill, are as follows: No liquor shall be sold or supplied by any society, association or club, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether heretofore or hereafter formed or incorporated, or by any member, officer or servant thereof, to any member of such society, association or club or to any other person on the premises of said association, society or club, unless a license for the sale of liquor by such society, association or club has been duly issued as hereinafter provided.

A license to be known as a "Club License" shall upon application therefor, accompanied by the consent in writing of the attorney general, be issued, at any time, by the superintendent of provincial police to any such society, association or club which is not by its charter of incorporation, or otherwise, prohibited, from selling liquor to the members thereof, upon payment of a fee of $100. Such license shall remain in force until Dec. 31 next ensuing, and shall authorize the sale of liquor by the society, association or club, its officers or servants to any member of said society, association or club, or to any person bona fide entitled to the privileges thereof. The provisions of the Liquor License Act of 1900 and of the Liquor Traffic Regulation act, not expressly applicable to such societies, associations or clubs, shall not apply thereto. Nothing in this act contained shall authorize the sale of liquor upon the premises of any society, association or club to any person who is not of the full age of twenty-one years. The superintendent of provincial police or any person authorized by him in writing so to do, may at any time enter upon and inspect the premises and books of any society, association or club licensed under the provisions of the act. The attorney general may at any time cancel any license issued under the provisions of this act when it is made to appear to him that the society, association or club, or its members, officers or servants have violated any provision of this act, or that the society, association or club is not being conducted in a proper manner.

W. R. Ross, K. C., Fernie, has been chosen government whip in succession to Hon. Thomas Taylor, now minister of public works.

THEIR HANDS ARE TIED

So Says Representative About Members of Congress.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—"Under the control of the speaker of the house and the enormous power which will be vested in the individual representatives by the new bill," said the speaker of the house, "the members of congress will be tied to the speaker's hands."

pounded today by representative Victor Murdock of Kansas, in a speech in the house.

Mr. Murdock made four concrete propositions. In one he cited a case in which he said a secret service agent under a congressional commission had been paid over $28 a day, which he said was an outrage and the second in which for twenty-three years the president of the Michigan Central railroad had been paid $1000 a year as a mail messenger to make up pay for the transportation of mails on railroads which Mr. Murdock said could not be done under the laws. As a third instance he charged that an excess of payment of $35,000 a year had been made to the Bads bridge at St. Louis for mail charges. The fourth was the payment by the house of representatives itself of $500, a year for a trivial clerical duty.

"And now," he said, "I challenge any member of this body, who is not a chairman of an appropriation committee, to secure a correction through congressional action in these four items I have cited over the opposition of the speaker or without his consent or that of any of the chairmen."

FERNIE RELIEF FUNDS

SUFFERERS DEMAND AN AUDIT OF ACCOUNTS

ALSO WANT BALANCE OF MONEY DISTRIBUTED

(Special to The Daily News.)
FERNIE, Jan. 26.—The Fernie District Fire Relief committee were waited on on Thursday last by a committee appointed at an indignation meeting of miners held the previous Saturday afternoon and the following resolutions presented to them:

"That whereas it is necessary that we should have a properly itemized balance sheet showing how the funds of the Fernie District Fire Relief committee have been disposed of. Therefore be it resolved, that we demand all books and accounts of the Fernie District Fire Relief committee be audited by a firm of accountants resident outside of Fernie.

"That whereas we believe that the monies donated for the relief of the sufferers in the late fire were for the purpose of assisting us to rebuild our homes. And whereas no plans for the final disposal of the funds have been submitted to the fire sufferers for their approval. Therefore be it resolved, that no repayment be made by fire sufferers for lumber and building supplies supplied by the relief committee.

"That whereas there is a considerable sum of money now in the hands of the Fernie District Fire Relief committee. Therefore be it resolved that we demand that the remainder of the funds now in hand be disposed of in a manner satisfactory to the majority of the sufferers of the late fire.

"That we circulate the resolutions passed by this meeting in form of a petition to be signed by all fire sufferers who desire to do so then, the whole subject matter be presented to the relief committee.

"That the citizens of Fernie protest against any act being passed by the British Columbia government that would empower the District Fire Relief committee as standing to do with the funds as they see fit; and that the citizens wish that the fund be disposed of by June 1 and that this protest be sent to W. R. Ross, M. P., P., and premier McBride. (Signed) J. Kent, L. Snow, T. Bullen, J. Cullerton, T. Uphill, J. Kobus, J. Wilde, P. Atkinson, C. Edgar, L. P. Eckstein, committee appointed at mass meeting.

The Fernie District Fire Relief committee will reply in writing on Monday afternoon.

Chief naval constructor Evans is appointed technical aid to the commandant and will superintend the work in the yard.

United States Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—A speech by senator Davis of Arkansas favoring legislation to prevent dealings by exchanges in "futures" in products of the soil and a maiden speech by Mr. Cummings of Iowa against the passage of the Postal Savings Bank bill, as reported to the senate by the committee on post offices, were the features of the senate today. Mr. Cummings spoke in favorable terms of the postal savings banks.

Only an Idle Rumor.

TOKIO, Jan. 26.—There is no foundation of the rumor of the death of count Jutaro Komura, minister of foreign affairs. He was in excellent health when seen this morning and said he expected to make a speech before the diet shortly.

Clifford Sifton in Deal.

OTTAWA, Jan. 26.—The Evening Free Press says: "Hon. Clifford Sifton and M. J. O'Brien of Renfrew, Ont., who is owner of the rich O'Brien mine at Cobalt have jointly purchased the famous Bonallig properties on Miller lake in the New River district of Governor's Bay."

FOR JAPANESE

California Governor Takes His Stand

AT ROOSEVELT'S REQUEST

EXECUTIVE OF STATE IN OPPOSING ANTI-ORIENTAL LEGISLATION IS ACTING AT REQUEST OF PRESIDENT—WHAT OFFICIAL MESSAGE SAYS

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 26.—Gov. Gillett's message on the Japanese question sent to the legislature today had the effect of crystallizing the sentiment for and against the bills by Drew and Johnson, against which president Roosevelt has invoked all his power. The president informed the governor that it would be extremely dangerous for the legislature to enact any laws that might be construed by Japan as discriminating. He telegraphed to Gov. Gillett today that another letter was on the way and this is expected to throw more light upon the exact situation between Japan and America.

Grove Johnson, author of the bill segregating the Japanese in residential districts at the option of municipalities, moved today when the measure came up for the third reading that it be made a special order for tomorrow. Thus two of the anti-Japanese measures will be before the lower house at that time and the fight, if any develops, will decide the whole issue.

The bill by A. M. Drew denying aliens the right to hold land was set for consideration then at the request of the author, after the governor had indicated that he desired such legislation held up.

Speaker Stanton and the assembly organization are against all of the bills objected to by the administration. The fight for them will come from Grove L. Johnson, the San Francisco delegation and assemblymen who have great numbers of union labor constituents.

Mr. Stanton said "The governor's message was conservative and should be headed by the legislature. The federal authorities are more able to cope with the situation than we are."

Gov. Gillett's message to the legislature regarding the Japanese question in part is as follows: "Certain bills have been introduced, some of which have been favorably reported by your committees indirectly intended to affect the Japanese people. At least, such is the impression abroad. These bills have attracted the notice of the whole nation and have caused Japan to call attention of our government to them. They have produced an agitation, not only in our country but throughout Japan, and the Japanese minister of foreign affairs has stated to the authorities in Washington that if the bills should be passed the government of Japan would consider it very embarrassing."

The governor then reviews what has been done by the governments of the United States and Japan resulting in a compact for the restriction of immigration, the provisions of which, he said, Japan is now carrying out.

Figures are here given showing the decrease of the immigration of Japanese and the governor says he knows of nothing to sustain the assertion that the Japanese population of California is increasing.

The message continues, "This question of immigration is one that affects the entire nation as well as our state, and is one which the federal government can alone settle. It may be settled in two ways. First, by an agreement between the two nations which has been done, or by legislation passed by congress as was done in the case of the Chinese. If we find out that, notwithstanding Japan's offer that her coolie labor continues to pour into our state, or through calling themselves agriculturalists are landing on our shores and settling in our cities, or are leasing and purchasing our valuable agricultural lands, and changing white settlements to Japanese to the blight of this state and its citizens then it is our plain duty to call to the attention of the government to the facts and petition, to take such prompt action as may be proper and by agreement with Japan or by legislation if necessary to remedy such conditions. If our complaints are just, they will be taken up by congress and the president and acted upon."

The message concludes as follows, "The president of the United States and the secretary of state have issued a warning against passing any bills of the nature proposed. Representing the nation and knowing the situation as they do, the warning should be heeded. The matter is one in which our interests are not alone involved, but one in which all the country is interested."

The passage of all or any of the proposed bills will not prevent a single Japanese from landing here nor cause one to leave the country. They will in no sense check immigration, change the Japanese way of doing business or his manner of living. They can only in the end embarrass this nation in its dealings with Japan and render future negotiations more difficult."

"Our efforts should be made through the proper channels and we should prepare a statement of facts to support any petition we may present.

"I would therefore recommend that a sufficient appropriation be made to enable the labor commissioner to take a census showing the number of Japanese now classed as laborers and those classed as agriculturalists, the number of acres of land owned by Japanese and the number of acres leased and to get such other and further information as may be useful in the making of a proper report to the president of the United States and to congress."

OPENS AT TRAIL TODAY

ASSOCIATED BOARD OF TRADE ANNUAL MEETING

RESOLUTION ON PROCTOR-KOOTENAY LANDING RAILWAY

The eleventh annual convention of the associated boards of trade of eastern British Columbia opens at Trail today. This is the first year that the convention has met at the smelter city. The towns which have previously sent delegates are Cranbrook, Greenwood, Kaslo, Moyle, Nelson, Rossland and Trail and to these will be added this year Creston in which town a board of trade was formed a few days ago. The officers of the associated boards are president, G. O. Buchanan, of Kaslo, who will read his annual report, vice president, Fred Starkey of Nelson, whose report will also be received, and the secretary treasurer, A. B. Mackenzie of Rossland.

A number of resolutions to be presented during the convention have already been published and to those must be added one which is to be submitted by the Nelson board of trade to the effect that the board considers that the time has arrived in the development of the country when a railway should be built from Kootenay Landing to Proctor and that the government of the Dominion of Canada should be urged to require the immediate construction of this track by the Canadian Pacific Railway company and that copies of the resolution should be forwarded to the premier of Canada, the minister of railways and A. S. Goodeve, M. P.

Among the delegates leaving Nelson by the noon train for Trail today are Fred Starkey, T. G. Procter and Louis Pratt, Nelson; G. O. Buchanan, H. Gelgerich and H. G. Zwickey, Kaslo, and C. P. Riel and A. Bevan, Creston.

Whereas, by chapter 5 of the Statutes of Canada, 1896-1897, entitled, "An act to Authorize a Subsidy for a Railway through the Crow's Nest Pass" the governor in council is empowered to grant to the Canadian Pacific Railway company a subsidy towards the construction of a railway from Lethbridge, in the district of Alberta, through the Crow's Nest pass to Nelson, in the province of British Columbia, to the extent of $11,000 per mile thereof, and not exceeding in the whole the sum of $2,630,000, payable by instalments on the completion of each of the several sections of the said railway of the length respectively of not less than 10 miles, and the remainder on the completion of the whole of the said railway.

And whereas, pursuant to the said statute, an agreement between the government and the company has been entered into;

And whereas, that portion of the line of said railway from Kootenay Landing to Proctor has not yet been constructed;

Therefore, be it resolved, that in the opinion of this board, the time has arrived in the development of the country when the said railway should be constructed from Kootenay Landing to Proctor aforesaid, and that the government of the Dominion of Canada be urged to require the immediate construction thereof by the Canadian Pacific Railway company, pursuant to the terms of the said agreement;

And be it further resolved, that copies of this resolution be forwarded to the premier of Canada, the honorable minister of railways and A. S. Goodeve, M. P., member for the district of Kootenay.

FORT WORTH, Texas, Jan. 26.—Four men were burned or suffocated to death and another perhaps fatally burned here today in a fire which practically destroyed the southern hotel. The explosion caused the fire. The dead have not yet been identified.

LONDON FIRST

All Treaties Go There Before to Ottawa

DISCUSSED IN THE HOUSE

MR. BORDEN AND SIR WILFRID LAURIER EXPRESS OPINION THAT SUCH AGREEMENTS SHOULD BE SUBMITTED TO CANADIAN HOUSE SOONER

(Western Associated Press.)
OTTAWA, Jan. 26.—The house of commons was in session less than an hour today. Before the adjournment R. L. Borden expressed the opinion that treaties vitally affecting Canada should be presented to parliament at the same time as they are presented to the American senate and people of the states, and that such treaties shall not be binding on Downing street until ratified by the Canadian people. Premier Laurier was inclined to agree. He admitted the inconvenience but in accordance with tradition, the matter of treaties must first go to the foreign office and thence return across the water. He saw no reason why they should not be given to the people of Canada even before being sent to London.

A. Claude McDonnell, South Toronto, introduced a bill to amend the election act. He proposes to repeal the clause requiring $200 deposit from candidates and to make election day a public holiday.

Hon. Sydney Fisher gave notice of a resolution for a general increase in the salaries of the inside civil service. A discussion on the question has been arranged for Friday.

When Dr. Reid, Grenville, introduced a resolution to insure secrecy regarding tenders until opened in public, Hon. William Pugsley, minister of public works, rose and stated that an order in council had been passed on Jan. 18 in which he believed would satisfy the member for Grenville. He read an order providing for the stamping of the date and hour of opening of each tender and for the safe keeping of tenders under lock and key until opened by the minister or by two officials designated by the minister.

Dr. Reid did not withdraw his motion. During question time Hon. G. E. Foster was informed by Hon. William Paterson, minister of customs, that Canada's indebtedness at home and abroad on Dec. 31 was $1,449,057,683, as against $1,408,207,169 at the end of March last.

Hon. George P. Graham, minister of railways, informed R. L. Borden that a private offer had been received for the intercolonial, but that it had not been considered by the government. He was unable to give Mr. Borden any definite information as to the prospects of the reconstruction of the Quebec bridge as the new commission appointed to prepare the plans had not yet reported to the government.

Hon. George E. Foster was informed that the cost of the Cassels commission to date had been $14,900.

Hon. William Pugsley informed Houghton Lennox, South Simcoe, that the government as yet had taken no steps to recover the $39,843 from George McAvity, which the latter acquired in connection with the St. John dredging contract.

The first liberal caucus was held this morning under the presidency of John Tomlin, North Bruce. After some discussion it was decided to leave the selection of the party whips to the premier. W. S. Calvert, West Middlesex, will doubtless remain chief, and Louis Laverger, Drummond and Arthabaska, and Victor Geoffroin, Chambly-Verchères, will be reappointed for Quebec and J. G. Turritt for the west.

Several new members made speeches today, including Dr. Clark of Red Deer.

In the senate senator Valentine Fitz was introduced by Sir Richard Cartwright and senator Coffey. Senator L. O. David moved an address congratulating the speaker upon his succession and regretting Hon. R. W. Scott's relinquishing the lead of the government in the upper house.

Senator Daniel Derbyshire, seconded the address in a pessimistic speech. Senator J. A. Loughheed followed paying a tribute to senator Scott and to Sir Richard Cartwright, declaring that the leadership had fallen into strong hands. Mr. Loughheed, however, demurred to the optimistic tone of the government's announcements as being at variance with the recent depression and prophesying that if the nine months of the fiscal year had found a deficit of $11,475,000 the end of the fiscal year would see one of fifteen millions. Mr. Loughheed then went into a detailed condemnation of the government's financial policy. The estimate last year was $90,000,000 for the revenue but this would be more than $80,000,000. He had doubts if parliament had done its full duty in authorizing the expenditures of $132,000,000 under the circumstances.

Receiving during its twelve years' rule $304,000,000 more than the conservatives during a similar period, the present administration not only failed to reduce the national debt but increased it by $50,000,000, despite the fact that $81,000,000 of debt had fallen due during that period. The debt was now over $300,000,000 and the Transcontinental railway would admittedly cost $200,000,000 to complete. He arraigned the government for the difference between the G. T. P. estimates and the cost of the road. Turning to the Cassels commission, Mr. Loughheed referred to the revelations as shocking beyond description and arraigned the government for permitting such conditions to develop.

He referred to the pre-election letter of the premier forecasting a 12 1-2 per cent rise in the civil servants and said that public conscience had similarly been stilled by the introduction of rural mail delivery which the government had announced last session could not be undertaken because of the expense. He complimented the government on its immigration restrictions but thought it might go further and abolish immigration bonuses.

WESTERN MINING MEN

WESTERN BRANCH OF CANADIAN INSTITUTE MEETS

WANT DOMINION AID FOR ZINC EXPERIMENTS

(Special to The Daily News.)
GREENWOOD, Jan. 26.—The fourth annual meeting of the western branch of the Mining institute of Canada, which opened yesterday came to a close this afternoon. Several papers on mining subjects were read, mostly of a technical nature and the following resolutions were unanimously passed:

Moved by S. S. Fowler, seconded by F. Keiser, that a meeting of the western branch of the Canadian Mining institute does hereby endorse and express its appreciation of the action of the provincial government and especially that of the honorable premier, minister of mines in aiding the important experiments which are being conducted at Nelson towards the separation and reduction of complex lead-zinc ores by electro-thermic means.

Moved by Thomas Kiddie, seconded by J. L. Retalack: Resolved, that this western branch of the Canadian Mining institute in meeting assembled does hereby express its approval and appreciation of the action of the federal government, through its mines department, in seeking a solution of the problem of the economical smelting of eastern iron ores by practical experiments in electro-thermic reduction conducted at the public cost. In this connection this meeting desires to commend to the government the desirability of aiding in and contributing to the advanced experiments which have already been made in this province towards the separation and reduction of lead-zinc ores by electro-thermic energy. These experiments have demonstrated the practicability of the separation of metallic zinc from metallic lead and its recovery as spelter from complex lead-zinc ores. Important deposits of such ores occur in this province and remain unworked through lack of economic reduction facilities. In the opinion of this meeting a solution of this problem will be of very great importance to the mining industry of the dominion.

Moved by Mr. Wilson, seconded by S. S. Fowler: That this meeting does hereby express its appreciation of the service rendered the mining industry by the first and present minister of mines, the Hon. Wm. Templeman, and of the action of the Rt. Hon., the premier of the dominion in retaining Mr. Templeman in office.

In Trouble With Police.

MARSEILLES, Jan. 26.—A party of American officers came into conflict with the police today and one of the Americans was taken to the police station where it is alleged after a violent scene the officer was subject to rough treatment.

H. Wainwright has personally protested to the authorities against the action of the police and has sent in a detailed report of the incident. The public prosecutor is investigating the cause.

Makes Record Run.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 26.—Under bare poles the American schooner Robert R. Hinds, Capt. Wiended, arrived today competing the greater part of the voyage from San Francisco to the Columbia river light ship in three days. Without a stitch of canvas she covered a distance of 280 miles in 24 hours. So far as known it is one of the greatest feats ever performed by a sailing vessel under similar circumstances. The Hinds will take on lumber for San Francisco.

Sea Victim's Belongings.

VICTORIA, Jan. 26.—Capt. Hunter of the steamer Leebro, which brought the wrecked Hamfield life boat here, turned over to the United States consul this morning the chronometer, sextant and compass, log and personal effects of Capt. Henningsen of the wrecked schooner Sequel as well as a small watch, brooch and rings which belonged to Mrs. Henningsen, who, with her three-year-old child, were victims of the disaster.

Dorando and Hayes.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 26.—Dorando Pietri and John Hayes of New York will meet in a 15 mile race here on Feb. 22, under the auspices of the St. Paul Roosevelt club.

TO THE LAST

Captain of the Republic Stayed at Post

TELLS STORY OF THE ESCAPE OF SECOND MATE AND HIMSELF WHEN HIS SHIP SANK, AFTER ALL REST OF CREW AND PASSENGERS WERE REMOVED

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Capt. Sealh and his officers and most of the crew of the wrecked steamship Republic were given a remarkable demonstration today when they landed at the pier of the White Star line from the revenue cutter Gresham. A great throng of officers and seamen from the steamships of the White Star line in dock, together with three or four hundred spectators, were on the dock when Capt. Sealh and his crew stepped down the gang plank. Officers and seamen alike made a rush for Capt. Sealh and lifted him to their shoulders, carrying him the whole length of the dock to the street while the crowd yelled itself hoarse and the stewards from the steamships blew trumpets. Behind the captain the crowd carried aloft the brave Blans, the wireless telegraph operator. Capt. Sealh was carried from the street to the offices of the steamship company on the second floor where only his earnest protest caused the crowd to cease its demonstration.

Few marine stories in recent years of marvellous escapes from the sea, equal in dramatic intensity that told by Capt. Sealh today of the escape of the second officer, Williams and himself from the Republic.

Regarding the collision with the Florida, Capt. Sealh would not talk discussing subsequent events said: "It was about 8 o'clock Sunday night when the Republic was sinking and only myself and Williams were on the bridge. There was a rumbling and cracking at the after end of the boat. The stern was settling very rapidly and the sea was pretty bad. Then I said to Williams, 'Well, what do you think about it, Williams,' and Williams answered 'I don't think it will be a long race. Let us sprit for it. When you are ready, let her go.'

"I looked aft again and saw just what she was going and I told Williams to burn a blue light. Then I fired my revolver five times to let the boats around us know that we were getting off. Turning to Williams, I said, 'Let us take to the forward rigging and we ran from the bridge to the saloon deck burning our blue lights as we went and carrying an ordinary lantern. When we got to the saloon deck, the water was coming in a little aft of where we stood. As we ran forward the stern was sinking so rapidly that the incline was so steep that when we got to the fore rigging we started to slip back and could hardly keep on deck.

"The last I saw of Williams he had crossed the port rail and was hanging over the side. I took to the rigging and went up as high as the mast head lights, a distance of many feet. I rested there and took out a blue light. It was wet and would not go off and then I fired the last shot from my revolver.

"The water had now caught up to me, coming up under my great coat and I floated. The revolver and my binocular held my coat down acting as sort of ballast. All the time the water was a roaring, seething mass all around me. I was caught in a whirlpool, for some time and I was churned around until I came to the surface. I tried to pull off my coat but could not. There was considerable debris about me and I managed to catch hold of some broken spars. Then I caught a large hatch covering and I pulled myself upon it and laid down upon it spread fashion. I was getting weak, cold and numb. I just lay on the hatch and saved myself until the last, shouting at intervals. Then the lights played on me and I waved a towel which I had found floating near me and shortly after the boats from the revenue cutter Gresham picked me up and carried me aboard. I found Williams in that little life boat. I thought I had seen the last of him."

Capt. Sealh praised in unmeasured terms the courage and pluck of the Republic's passengers, officers and crew and operator.

Second officer Williams said when he found himself in the sea he seized two pieces of floating grating and held himself up between them until picked up by the revenue cutter's boat. Officer Williams said: "They found me before they picked up Capt. Sealh and when the captain was taken aboard the lifeboat he lay still for a time, then he turned and threw his arms around me and said 'You were game to the last.'"

Earthquakes Continue.

MONTELEONE, Jan. 26.—Earth shocks, which average a dozen daily, are apparently increasing in intensity. The refugees are aroused to a state of alarm and the vast majority of them have decided to emigrate to America. On the distant horizon mount Aetna can be seen an immense column of white smoke which the people consider a bad omen.

A BOY'S STRUGGLE FOR LIFE TWICE DELIVERED FROM DEATH

Mr. S. J. New of 154 Baldwin St., Toronto, says: "I can trace my son Harold's trouble to when he had the measles five years ago, from which he never really recovered. So one of the best physicians attended him, but with months of suffering he in turn contracted whooping cough, bronchitis, and then pneumonia."

"MY POOR BOY WAS REDUCED TO A SHADOW." "Month after month went by that we shall not soon forget; months of sleepless nights, fearful coughs, weakening night sweats, left my boy a mere shadow. He had no appetite, and my heart ached to see how he was wasting away. He spent one whole summer at the Lakeside Home for sick children, and came home greatly improved, but the cold winds of October took him off his feet again. The doctor advised me to send him to Muskoka, but heavy doctor's bills had depleted my financial resources and such a step seemed out of the question. Scores of friends advised the use of PSYCHINE, but I was inclined to place PSYCHINE on a par with many advertised remedies and cheap nostrums. However, my friends proved such strong advocates of it that I at last consented to try it."

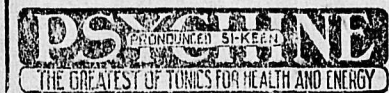

"HUMAN LIPS CANNOT DESCRIBE THE CHANGE." "We tried PSYCHINE and human lips cannot describe the change that took place. No words can express the thankfulness of his mother and myself when we saw the crisis was over and realized that our boy was fighting his way back to life and health. PSYCHINE had mastered that which all the doctors' prescriptions had failed to check. Day by day Harold grew stronger and all through the winter of 1906 although continually out of doors he failed to take cold, and he put on flesh very quickly. By the spring my son was completely cured, and developed into a strong, sturdy lad."

HAROLD AGAIN FALLS A VICTIM TO DISEASE. "About last Christmas he was again attacked, this time with diphtheria; and had this dread disease very badly. After spending some time in the Isolation Hospital he returned home cured of his illness, but oh! in such a pitiable state of emaciation. The last struggle with the grim monster death had reduced him to a skeleton almost, and the boy could scarcely stand, he was so weak."

PSYCHINE AGAIN GIVES GOOD SERVICE. "Again we began to give him PSYCHINE and before one bottle had been used he showed a marked improvement. We continued the treatment, and in a very short time Harold was as strong as ever and able to go to school. We haven't any need for a doctor in our home since we started using PSYCHINE. It is certainly a wonderful remedy. Can you wonder that I am never tired of proclaiming its merits?" "Though not in such a marked degree, I may say that my other children have been greatly benefited by this medicine. simply. He smiled at his own credulity. The woman was mad. But this idea was quickly dispelled by the look of desperate determination she fixed upon him as she said: "I will give to monsieur three minutes." They sat doggedly facing each other she watching the hands of a tiny watch, he vainly conjecturing her next move. The train began to slow up for the next station. The three minutes ticked away. Then she deliberately threw aside her watch, tore her hat from her head, disheveled her hair till it streamed in wild disorder over her shoulders and even dug her nails into her cheek till the blood smeared her face. Meanwhile she threw open the window and screamed: "A moi! A moi! Help ye American!" and uttered sighs and stifled groans. The American leaned back in his seat and waited, the only evidence of his excitement in the furious puffing of his cigar between his set teeth. Before the train had come to a stop in the station the gendarmes had got aboard and the accused man faced four revolvers. Still he waited a frown of perplexity on his face, while the woman gave the officers a hurried account of the struggle and held up to them the portmanteau which, she averred he had not been able to wrest from her before the train arrived at the station. The case looked clear. The American rose to accompany the gendarmes as their prisoner when suddenly he stopped and motioned them aside with a gesture so convincing that they loosened their rough hold and stood back. He took the cigar from his teeth. The ashes clinging to it were an inch long.

Unless It's a Good Store It Will Not Pay to Advertise It

Unless you know a person—unless that person comes into your life in some way—you are not greatly concerned about whether he is good or bad, desirable or objectionable.

It's so with a store. The people who never visit it care nothing about it one way or the other. It doesn't exist—for them. But—when they are persuaded to patronize it—when they come to turn the spotlight of their attention on it—when it comes to have a part in their lives, as some stores must have in all lives—then it's different, then it DOES matter whether it strives to win confidence; it does matter whether or not its price concessions are genuine, dependable.

If it meets all tests that a good store must stand when it is advertised—when it thus invites the critical attention of people—then advertising "makes" the store. If it fails in most of the vital things—if it proves, under the light of publicity, not to be much of a store, THEN ADVERTISING WILL NOT PAY—for it will emphasize shortcomings as well as merits.

For these same reasons it is generally assumed that the store which does not advertise is seeking to avoid close inspection and comparison, and that the store which does is courting them.

MONTREAL, Jan. 26—A sleet storm that raged all day Saturday and was followed on Saturday night by a gale of wind worked havoc among the overhead wires on the streets of Montreal and wrecked many fine shade trees on the city streets. Half a Mile of Notre Dame street was closed to the public owing to fallen wires. When the poles fell the wires became entangled with the power wires, carrying a heavy voltage and there was a great electrical display until the power was turned off. Hundreds of poles are down all over the city, the storm in this respect being one of the most costly in the city's history. Westmount and a number of other suburbs of the city were without water all day owing to the breaking down of the power line from which the electrically operated pumps are supplied.

Bradley was shot from ambush after visiting the cabin of one of the tenants of his plantation, who, it was stated by several persons, Bradley had expressed the intention of whipping.

THE COME AND SEE SIGN

This sign is permanently attached to the front of the main building of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass.

What Does This Sign Mean? It means that public inspection of the Laboratory and methods of doing business is honestly desired. It means that there is nothing about the business which is not "open and above-board."

It means that a permanent invitation is extended to anyone to come and verify any and all statements made in the advertisements of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Is it a purely vegetable compound made from roots and herbs—without drugs? Come and See.

Do the women of America continually use as much of it as we are told? Come and See.

Was there ever such a person as Lydia E. Pinkham, and is there any Mrs. Pinkham now to whom sick women are asked to write? Come and See.

Is the vast private correspondence with sick women conducted by women only, and are the letters kept strictly confidential? Come and See.

Have they really got letters from over one million, one hundred thousand women correspondents? Come and See.

Have they proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured thousands of these women? Come and See.

This advertisement is only for doubters. The great army of women who know from their own personal experience that no medicine in the world equals Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female ills will still go on using and being benefited by it; but the poor doubting, suffering woman must, for her own sake, be taught confidence, for she also might just as well regain her health.

THE TALE THE ASHES TOLD

By Homer Cartwright

(Copyrighted.) Thousands of men throughout the world are each day patiently seeking in the labyrinthine ways of evidence the proof or disproof of some poor wretch's guilt the penalty of whose conviction perhaps is death; and the life of a man may be lost or saved by a thread, slender, yet so unbreakable and sure that it holds inevitable truth in its meshes. Sometimes there is only a tiny seed of truth but a grain of gold outvalues ten of dross. A man occupied a rear end compartment in a train bound north from Lucerne. He was leaning leisurely against the door frame watching the crowding throng in the station, as the train took on its burden preparatory for the journey. He was powerfully built, and even in the attitude of repose he betrayed the same control with which he dominated the abundant energy which pervaded him. He was an American. The train was about to start when the traveller noticed a woman struggling through the crowd toward the train. She had scarcely reached the rear end when the train started and the American, jumping down caught her baggage and assisted her to mount to the compartment which he was occupying.

When they had recovered their composure and he had stowed away her baggage, he remarked that she was young, richly dressed in a sweeping fur lined ulster and jaunty travelling hat which seemed hauntingly familiar to him. She was unmistakably French.

Oh! he remembered her, standing opposite to him at Monte Carlo on the night of his fortunate play, when the croupier had put into his hands the returns of his lucky hazard. He also remembered the expression of hatred and avidity from the eyes across the table as he turned to leave. Presently she felt his questioning gaze and spoke "Oh, monsieur je vous remerci! Vous mavez sauve!"

Though he caught the meaning of her words in her smile and gesture, he only bowed his acquiescence and settled back to read his paper. She sighed and glanced at him from time to time but his attention was so absorbed and silence reigned except for the rumble of the speeding train. Once he laid aside the paper to draw out and light a cigar, but she was gazing intently out into the closing darkness. Then suddenly she spoke in English. "Monsieur, give me 5000 francs."

The American looked up questioningly. "Monsieur, give me 5000 francs," she repeated calmly looking directly into his eyes. He returned her look fixedly. "Madame you are mistaken. I am an American traveller. We have never met before."

"But monsieur will give to me the money," she said, this time with unmistakable menace in her voice.

He did not answer her at once. Evidently this was not a case of mistaken identity; it was a threat. But how could this mite of a woman carry out the menace she implied in her persistent demand and eloquent gesture. His hand clasped the butt end of his revolver as he answered.

"And if I will not?" "Then I will scream," she answered

WANTS OLYMPIC GAMES

Sweden - After Honor of Next Great World's Meet. NEW YORK, Jan. 26 - According to a letter from a prominent member of the Swedish Olympic team the Swedes have laid lines to corral the Olympic games of 1912 for Stockholm, and it is said that the Swedish government is behind the project and will back it to the finish. Some time ago Kaiser William intimated that he wanted the next Olympic for Berlin, but it seems the German athletic authorities are lukewarm about tackling the job, as they are new to management of track and field sports - this is, as far as big international events are concerned.

It was said that Italy hungered after the fixture, but likely the disasters of Reggio and Messina will so affect the public life of Italy for the next few years that there will be no yearning for anything in the sporting line.

That the Swedes are anxious to get the games there is not a shadow of doubt, for even in the games at Athens three years ago those there from Sweden were continually harping on the idea of getting the fixture for Stockholm. It was their opinion that the big international event would be of immense benefit to the cause of amateur sport in Sweden and that they would learn some new wrinkles from the visitors.

No nation in the world is so ambitious to learn the up-to-date methods of athletics, as can be seen, from the fact that special men were sent to America and England to study athletics and put what they learned in to practice at home. A meeting of the international Olympic committee has been called for the end of the present month at Paris, France, when the location of the 1912 games will be selected.

Spring Handicaps.

Entries for the old country spring handicaps show if anything an improvement over last year, and there is good promise for a highly successful flat racing season. Much of course cannot be said about them until the handicappers have finished their work, when lists will be considerably thinned out, but it is satisfactory to find that the Lincolnshire, which opens the season on March 23, has about sixty entries, or eight more than last year. Of these, only two are three-year-olds, being Mrs. M. Stokvis' Ute, and Col. Birkin's Sea Queen. The list can hardly be termed brilliant but that is rarely the case so early in the season, when trainers have not had time to get many of their animals into anything like running form. Among the more prominent of last season's performers figuring in the entry list are Sir Archibald, Star of Doon, Land League, Simonsen, Old China, Mercutio, Elmstead, Poor Boy, Wise Mason and Succor - certainly not a very inspiring lot.

NELSON JUNIORS BEATEN

Kaslo Seniors Defeat Them Six to Nothing.

The game between the Nelson juniors and the Kaslo hockey team on Saturday last resulted in a victory for the latter by six goals to none. The ice was in magnificent condition and the game was a fast one. The Nelson boys were somewhat outweighed by the heavier calibre of their opponents but nevertheless although defeated, played a strong game and but for bad luck in shooting and the fine goal tending of Carney would doubtless have made a better showing.

The star player on the Kaslo side was Hutchinson, a fast traveller from Montreal, who played a brilliant game as rover and was well backed up by the rest of the team.

Relly for Nelson juniors made many dashes for the Kaslo goal but was unlucky in his shots. Gore who played center also made many gallant attempts to reach the net. Cummins as goal worked hard against overpowering odds and was successful in frustrating some of the enemy's most well directed and vigorous efforts. The rest of the team did good work and played well together.

The teams lined up as follows, the first seven being the Nelson juniors and the second the Kasloites.

Table with 2 columns: Name, Position. Nelson juniors: Cummings, Relly, Bell, MacDonald, Gore, Miller, T. Carney. Kaslo: Jenkins, Hutchinson, Anderson, Blackwell, Carney, Belrose, Macdonald.

The Nelson players speak in glowing terms of the welcome they received from the home team. On arriving, at the wharf they were met by president Desmond and others of the Kaslo club who drove them to an hotel and payed them every possible attention. After the game was concluded the visitors were treated to a splendid banquet at which a speech of welcome was delivered by president Desmond. Altogether the boys say they were treated like princes. A return game will be arranged with Kaslo to take place at Nelson as soon as possible when the juniors hope to avenge their defeat of Saturday last.

Notes of Sport.

We have been asked to state the number of times Corbett and Jeffries met, and also the number of rounds in each fight. In 1904 Corbett went 23 rounds, and in 1904 ten rounds, with Jeffries, the latter winning each time by the knockout route.

Dorando has to drink wine to win his races. Longboat has to leave whiskey alone to win his. There must be an argument somewhere in this - Toronto Star.

Rector, the Yankee amateur sprinter, won't meet Walker, the South African record breaker, as his doctors have warned him that he'll be dead in two years if he continues training. Well, perhaps so, but don't you remember the doctors' warning to Tom Longboat? They told him to quit running or die. And Tom kept on running and only got married.

The Australian rugby team that have been touring England are coming home by this continent with the expectation of getting some games en route, remaining in New York about a Review of Mining in 1908.

To The Editor of The Daily News: Sir - In Mr. A. H. Gracey's letter to the Nelson board of trade printed in The Daily News of 23rd inst. the following sentence occurs: "I understand Mr. E. Jacobs, whom we all know, prepared a summary of the mining operations in B.C. covering the past year but it had probably not reached New York in time for this issue." May I state for the information of those interested that I did send the Engineering and Mining Journal of New York a summary containing tables of mineral production of the province in 1908 and other salient features of the review of mining I prepared for The Daily News' New Year special number but owing chiefly to the delay on the part of several of those in charge of large mines and smelters in replying to my applications for the requisite data, it was not possible for me to complete the summary in time for its publication in the annual statistical issue of the mining journal mentioned and to which Mr. Gracey alludes I did my utmost to give British Columbia the benefit of publicity in that widely read special number, but my efforts were of no avail by reason of some of my letters asking for the necessary information not having been replied to in time. While it was not incumbent upon mine and smelter managers to supply me with the information I asked for, most of them readily accorded me that courtesy and indispensable assistance. Though I have no right to complain of the failure of a few managers of important mines and works to do this way co-operate with me by a specified date in securing for the mining industry of the province extensive publicity, I may express my regret that those few thereby rendered ineffective the efforts of the many who did promptly reply to my requests for information, and so prevented advantage being taken of an exceptionally favorable opportunity additional to that provided by The Daily News in its special number, for widely advertising last year's progress in mining in British Columbia, and that, too, at absolutely no cost to those directly concerned. May I add that, in my judgment, both in Mr. Gracey's letter to the Nelson board of trade and the comments thereon, a strained meaning has been given to the statement imputed to Mr. W. H. Turner's contribution to the Engineering and Mining Journal on "Quicksilver in 1908." to Mr. W. F. Robertson, provincial mineralogist, who was quoted as having said that "none of the prospects in British Columbia have as yet developed into working mines." The whole of the page on which the lines quoted from the Engineering and Mining Journal appear is manifestly devoted to the subject of "Quicksilver" and there are two black head lines and the caption of one statistical table giving prominence to the fact that reference is made only to that metal. It seems to me that in common fairness to both Mr. Robertson - who, by the way, did not contribute to the journal quoted from the lines to which exception has been taken - and the Engineering and Mining Journal, particular attention should be directed to what I have pointed out. ### A BUSINESS GOVERNMENT

The electors of British Columbia who follow the published proceedings in the legislature are likely to come to the conclusion that the McBride administration is a business one and that the affairs of the province are carried along fairly, impartially and with a keen regard to the rapid development of the country and its great natural resources.

People who recall the periods of turmoil and political unrest that prevailed in B.C. for several years previous to the formation of the McBride government, and who have watched with five and a half years cannot fail to appreciate the great change for the better which has taken place. The excellent work accomplished at Victoria by Mr. McBride and his colleagues is shown today by the improved conditions evident all over the province.

No thoughtful elector would care today to return to the former unsatisfactory state of affairs which prevailed under the several coalition administrations of the past. The system of party government is not a perfect one but premier McBride has succeeded in demonstrating its immeasurable superiority to the coalition idea or to any other method of administration.

It is difficult to realize how much has been happily accomplished by the present provincial government during their five and a half years of office, but one has only to contrast the political situation over the province today with that of six or eight years ago to grasp at least some idea of how far we have progressed towards stability and success.

The public accounts for the fiscal year brought down in the legislature last week tell their own story of the efficient, progressive and at the same time economical, administration of the affairs of the province. The net surplus shown was $1,388,381. The surplus for the preceding year amounted to $1,249,594. Despite the redemption of debentures to the extent of $686,000 the increase in the surplus amounts to $138,787.29

The chief factor was the increase in the receipts from timber royalty and licenses, an increase over the previous year of $1,103,220.53. Land sales were not as great during the same term as in the twelve months preceding. Largely owing to the government's policy of reserving land for the pre-emptor, the sales fell off over $100,000.

There are many other reasons for the increased surplus. The province received from the dominion government $345,000 as its share of the Chinese head tax, and if British Columbia laments the influx of Orientals their treasury has been somewhat enriched thereby.

From the royalty and tax on coal an increase of about $18,000 is recorded but the tax on minerals to offset this shows a decrease of nearly $40,000. In registry fees there was an increase of nearly $20,000.

Against all this increased revenue there is an increased expenditure shown. Civil government salaries show an increase of $36,000; to hospitals and charities $10,000 more than during the previous year went. Upon education some $60,000 more than during the preceding fiscal year, was expended.

But the chief increase in expenditure was upon public works. Over $560,000 more than during the year before was expended. The total amounting to nearly a million and a half. The increase in expenditure under all heads amounted to $1,398,481.48.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The report of Mr. David Wilson on free text books in the public schools of the province, presented to the legislature at Victoria last week, concludes with the following summary: "As the people of the province collectively are the principals in the purchase and distribution of these free text books for the use of their children it is proper that they should learn whether or not this experiment has been of advantage to them financially. It has already been stated that the free text book branch of the education department distributed during the past six months text books and supplies which would have cost the parents at prevailing retail prices the sum of $27,347.25. To place these books in the hands of the public school children through the medium of the free text book branch required an outlay of $20,084.19, made up as follows: Text books, laid down cost, $17,319.34; distribution, freight, etc., $1,076.80; distribution salaries of staff, $1,688.05; total $20,084.19. The net profit on the half year's business is therefore $7,263.06 and the percentage of profit is 36.1."

The fourth annual meeting of the western branch of the Canadian Mining Institute closed a successful session last evening at Greenwood. In addition to expressing its appreciation of the session of the provincial government in assisting the work of the Nelson electrical zinc smelter, the meeting decided to ask the B.C. government to subsidize the western branch of the institute, as it already does Farmers' Institutes. Good results have come from the aid given to Farmers' Institutes and the request of the mining men, if granted at Victoria, would meet with public approval. The difficult reduction problems discussed at Greenwood gives an idea of the excellent work carried on by the western branch members and a grant in aid of the institute would enable still further and better work to be accomplished.

The premier's frank statement in the legislature on Monday that he would not tolerate the expenditure of public monies for luxuries, such as the beautification of the provincial capital, much as that is to be desired, until the requirements of all sections of the province in the matter of trails and roads had been adequately met, will be appreciated in Kootenay and Boundary, where the necessity for the construction of trails and roads is so well understood. The premier's defence of provincial civil servants and his reference to the amount of railway construction now going on in B.C. as well as his reference to a probable deal with the Canadian Northern railway, whereby that transcontinental line would be brought in and through this province, constituted an effective reply to the opposition leader's criticism of the matters referred to.

An Associated Press report of the proceedings in the federal parliament on Monday, received here that night, stated incidentally that sir Wilfrid Laurier was a particularly attentive listener to the speeches made by the conservative members from British Columbia. The solid five have commenced the session well and have lots of educational work still ahead of them. Before prorogation takes place the real situation in the far west on many important matters will have been told the premier and the rest of the house very plainly. Later on, the reason for the late political turn over in Kootenay and Yale-Cariboo, to say nothing of the coast constituencies, will be satisfactorily explained at Ottawa.

Among the members who spoke at Ottawa yesterday was Dr. Clarke, the silver-tongued orator of the fur-coat brigade, imported into Kootenay at the time of the bye-election in this constituency, due to the postponement of the date of polling. It is to be hoped that the members of the house of commons paid more attention to his remarks than did the people of Kootenay.

The death in Toronto yesterday of the most Rev. Arthur Sweetman, archbishop of Toronto and Metropolitan and Primate of all Canada, removes a noted churchman. He was educated at Christ's college, Cambridge and came to London, Ont., in 1865, as head master of Melmoth college, at the time one of the leading educational institutions of Canada, managed along the lines of the great English public schools. After seven years' service as head master, he retired and was appointed rector of Grace church, Brantford, Ont., from which position he became bishop of Toronto in 1879, and archbishop in 1907. A finished scholar and of a kindly and democratic disposition, bishop Sweetman has long been held in affectionate regard by the laity and clergy of the church of England in Canada.

Two characteristic bits of news from Toronto are that the local liberals are going to select a clergyman for their leader so that they can put prohibition in their platform and that the new liberal club has decided by a vote of fifty to nine to apply for a license to sell liquors to members. That is, when the political prohibitionists become thirsty fighting for the cause in the legislature they want some place where they can go and "irrigate" while hatching schemes to carry on the noble crusade. Humor will never die out in the community as long as we have party politics.

END IS HOPED FOR

Old Country Papers Desire Settlement of Fisheries Question.
 (Canadian Associated Press.)
 LONDON, Jan. 26.—The hope is sincerely expressed that the end of the Newfoundland fisheries dispute has now been reached. It is stated that it is conceded that the question of the right of Americans to fish off the west coast inlets should go to arbitration. It is also said that Britain made a concession regarding the list laws and the regulations which is to be submitted to The Hague. These are looked on as important. The British press discusses the participation of the representatives of Canada and Newfoundland in the negotiations. The Morning Post says it inaugurates a new era in the relations of Great Britain and the United States.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—For the first time under the terms of the international arbitration treaty with the various countries of the world, as a result of negotiations by secretary Root, resort is to be had to the international tribunal at The Hague, to which august body are to be referred the disputed questions growing out of the Newfoundland fisheries treaty of 1818 between the United States and Great Britain. In this way the state department and the British foreign offices hope will be terminated a long pending issue which has become annoying and irritating and a source of bad feeling between the American fishermen and the Newfoundland authorities while the former are plying their vocation in the waters of that country.

After protracted conferences of months standing secretary Root and ambassador Bryce have come to a complete understanding and as soon as the formal consent of the colonial authorities is received the treaty will be signed. Final action was hastened by the presence at the conference of ministers of justice Aylesworth of Canada and Kent of Newfoundland.

Satisfied With Fortune.

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—Sidney C. Love of New York and Chicago, having amassed during a brief but brilliant career a fortune said to be close to $2,000,000 and having married a Chicago society girl, pronounced by Sir Phillip Burne

Jones, the artist, to be the most beautiful woman in the world, quietly retired from business today, Mr. Love had contemplated the move for some months but so quietly were the details worked out yesterday that the announcement that Sidney C. Love & Co. had abandoned a business formerly rated at $25,000,000 startled the local financial district.

VETERANS LAND GRANTS

Over Million Acres Are Taken up in This Way.
 (Western Associated Press.)

OTTAWA, Jan. 26.—During question time yesterday Hon. G. E. Foster was informed by Hon. Frank Oliver that up to the present time 3767 veterans of the South African war have under the bounty act of last session, been granted 1,026,440 acres of land.

Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux today presented to parliament the report of W. L. Mackenzie King, who was commissioned to enquire into the series of disputes which affected the 6000 operatives of the cotton mills in the province of Quebec during last summer. The main conclusions of the report are that the 10 per cent reduction in the wages in the cotton mills of Quebec which occasioned the strike and lock-out of May, 1908, was not due to any peculiar severity on the part of the Canadian employers, to the tariff or to special conditions, but was an economic consequence of the general trade and financial depression; that the present depression is temporary, and that the employers have promised a restoration of the former scale of wages when trade improves; that the strike in the mills was unwise and ill-advised and would not have taken place had the constitution of the labor organizations been strictly followed; that the manner in which notice of the intended reduction in wages was given was an aggravating circumstance under the then existing conditions; that personal enmities and ambitions on the part of certain leaders were responsible for dissensions among the operatives which were prejudicial to their common interests; that the hours of labor of women and children in the cotton mills were too long; that the law respecting the employment of labor has been evaded and should be so amended as to provide against possible infractions in the future, and that in this connection, a special responsibility devolved upon the shoulders of all those who profit by the results of such labor.

BRINGS NEWS FROM ORIENT

Steamer Arrives at Victoria With Large Budget.

VICTORIA, Jan. 26.—After a stormy passage with head winds and high seas the Blue Funnel liner Cyclops reached port yesterday from the Orient and Liverpool with 5000 tons of general freight, including a large shipment of hemp from Manila. The wreck of the schooner Soquel was seen high up on Seabird rocks, listed considerably to the starboard with seas breaking over the stern. A small steamer was standing by the wreck to windward.

News was brought by the Cyclops of the suicide of Capt. Wagermann of the

From China news was brought that the new government is arranging for a cruise by a flying squadron to the South Pacific as soon as the period of mourning is ended to show the flag at the Chinese settlements in British and Dutch colonies and dependencies.

News was brought from Tokio that count Tanaka and viscount Hanabusa of the imperial household department had both resigned as a result of the failure on their part to learn of count Togo's previous marriage in time to prevent the betrothal with him of an imperial princess, a match broken off afterwards as a result of the exposure of the scandal connected with the count. The resignations were not accepted by the emperor.

Progress at Royal Collieries.

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., Jan. 26.—H. N. Galer, president of the Royal Collieries Limited, was in the city recently attending a meeting of the Western Coal Operators' association. Mr. Galer drove out to the mines and is very well pleased with the progress made. The work of development has been completed, the spur has been in operation for some time, and shipments are now proceeding regularly. The company would like to procure the services of twenty-five more miners at once. D. McPhee, formerly of the Coleman Mercantile company has opened a general store at Royal City. From now on the company will greatly increase the output each month.
