BOARD OF TRADE MEETS

Important Business Transacted--Agricultural Society Arranged For

The Board of Trade held a meeting in the Edison theatre on Tuesday evening. There was a very fair attendance, but owing to the fact that there were several other meetings called for the same evening the number present was not as large as it otherwise would have been. The meeting was more of a family talk than anything else, over those things that would improve the town and district. The president, F. E. Simpson, briefly addressed the meeting, the theme of his talk being the value of a "pull together" feeling among the members and the citizens at large. After the president had spoken, the minutes of the previous meeting were read by Secretary Allison and adopted as read.

A communication from W. H. Wilson on the matter of the local train and flyer carrying mail, was left to the executive to deal with.

W. F. Gurd, in a well turned speech, congratulated the executive on the work they had already done and strongly urged the planting of fruit and ornamental trees in the private gardens of the city.

The question of the agricultural fair and the forming of an agricultural society for show purposes was then discussed at some length. G. H. Ashworth, Alderman Ryan and others taking part in the debate. The matter was left to the executive and the president and secretary instructed to fix a date for a meeting to consult with the farmers, ranchers and others interested. This was done on the motion of R. E. Beattie and M. A. Macdonald.

Alderman Ryan as street commissioner, asked for suggestions along the line of street improvements. Suggestions were offered by Messrs. Brynner, Rothwell, Elwell and others, and many valuable ideas along the line of tree planting, boulevarding, etc., were offered.

The meeting was a decided success and really brought the members of the Board nearer together for the advancement of Cranbrook and the district, and augurs well for the future success of the organization.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY

ONE WILL BE FORMED NEXT THURSDAY EVENING.

At the request of the Board of Trade meeting held last Tuesday evening the president and secretary set next Thursday evening as the date. The meeting will be held in the committee room of the Cranbrook hotel at 8.30 p.m., and every citizen of Cranbrook and the surrounding district should be present if possible. Cranbrook should have an exhibit of the products of the district this fall, and this cannot be done unless a society for the purpose is formed. Turn out and show what Cranbrook can do when it gets started.

COUNCIL MEETING

A meeting of the City Council was held last evening in the council chamber. There were present Mayor Fink and Aldermen Jackson, Henderson, Hunt and Ryan.

After the reading and the adoption of the minutes of the previous meeting a delegation from the Cranbrook Board of Trade, consisting of F. E. Simpson, president; C. H. Allison, secretary; and M. A. Macdonald, of the executive, appeared before the council and asked for a modest appropriation towards the work of the board. The delegation was heard and at a special meeting to be held next Wednesday the matter will be considered.

Representatives of the Kootenay Telephone Lines appeared before council to request that the permits granted to the Cranbrook Electric Light company be transferred to the Kootenay Telephone Lines, Limited. This was held over until the special meeting next Wednesday.

A communication from the Fire Department asked that, on account of the fire bell being necessary in addition to the whistle, that the curfew be discontinued. On the motion of Alderman Ryan and Henderson, it was decided not to ring the fire bell as a curfew, but that arrangements be made with one of the churches to ring the curfew.

The usual monthly bills were presented and ordered paid. The Council then adjourned.

THE PICTURES.

The pictures shown at the Edison this week have been far above the average. "The Cowboy's Baby" and the "Story of Samson" were among the best and large audiences have been the rule all week. "Little Parish Church" is distinctly holding its own.

HOT TIME AT OTTAWA

Ottawa, April 2.--The most sensational scene of the many sessions in the House of Commons occurred tonight, when Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. Geo. E. Foster clashed in a heated exchange of plain-spoken opinions, which at one time threatened to require the intervention of the sergeant-at-arms. As on previous occasions, Mr. Foster's facility in saying bitter and cutting things led him a step too far. In concluding, at 9 o'clock, his speech on the opposition's resolution, proposed yesterday by C. J. Doherty, demanding the appointment of a commission to investigate all the departments of the government, similar to that conducted in regard to the marine department, Mr. Foster had the temerity to impute to Sir Wilfrid motives of personal profit in connection with the fact that as yet the men found guilty by the Cassel's commission had not been prosecuted in the criminal courts.

Sir Wilfrid, in answering tonight, gave the ex-finance minister a reply in kind, and the spirit displayed on both sides of the House led to a decidedly exciting half hour before the squall passed over. It is safe to say that as a result of the premier's countercheck to Mr. Foster, this master of invective, who is himself open to attack, will be a little more careful in future in steering clear of making any charges against the personal honesty of the premier.

The chief result of the whole debate on the resolution, which was at an early hour this morning voted down by a large government majority, will be the impression left on the public mind that the opposition's most caustic and effective speaker, Mr. Borden's first lieutenant in the House and his prospective finance minister, got a little more and well deserved down. An from the premier, whose record both in private and public life as well will bear comparison with that of the ex-manager of the Union Trust company.

The previous one from us is gone, a voice we loved is stilled; Which never can be filled; Signed on behalf of the lodge. Abel Horsman, Master, Joseph Wallace, Secretary.

RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE.

To Bro. E. D. Corbett and Wife: We, the officers and members of Cranbrook L.O.L., No. 1871, having learned of the death of your beloved daughter, desire to extend to you our heartfelt sympathy in your sad bereavement. We realize how helpless we are to lighten your burden of sorrow by anything we can say, but we pray that, Our Heavenly Grand Master may comfort you in this, your sad affliction, and give you grace sufficient to say Thy will, not mine, be done. United as we are in bonds of Christian brotherhood, we to a certain extent share your sorrows.

MEDAL CONTEST.

The medal contest which was held at the Methodist church last Friday evening was an unqualified success. The judges were C. H. Allison, Rev. A. Anderson and J. F. Smith. The prize was awarded to David Watson. Address by chairman: Opening chorus by boys, "Onward we are Marching." Recitation by Master Thompson. First medal contestant. Vocal solo by Master Watson. Chorus by Gym Band of Hope boys. Second medal contestant. Recitation by Master Fraser. Third medal contestant. Recitation by Master Orville Thompson. Trio by Masters Wallinger and Chisholm, "Whistle and Hoe." Fourth medal contestant. Chorus of boys, "Our Coming Army." Fifth medal contestant. Trio by Master Chisholm and Wallinger, "Daisy Farm." God Save the King.

THE CHAPMAN-ALEXANDER REVIVAL CAMPAIGN

(By the Publicity Committee.)

The opera house was filled to the doors last Sunday night on the occasion of the opening service of the revival campaign. The ushers had extra chairs in readiness and these were called for before the service had really begun. Mr. J. W. Reynolds was delighted with the choir practice which took place in the afternoon, and he quickly proved himself a master leader and conductor. The whole of the stage has been built up for the convenience of the singers, and they certainly presented a fine appearance as they rose for the first hymn at the call of the leader. Mr. Reynolds has a peculiar and happy knack of conducting, the gallery, and sometimes the men, and then the women to sing portions of the gospel songs by themselves, and then the choir responding with the chorus of some other portion, reminds one of the antiphonal methods of long ago, but nevertheless the effect is striking and effective, and it was generally remarked after the service that the leader and the choir had rendered splendid service. Mr. Reynolds rendered two fine solos in a clear and winsome manner.

Dr. Toy spoke on the subject of spiritual life and death, basing his remarks on the text: "He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life." John 5-12. The Dr. does not play with words. He cleared his own path by saying that he would deliver his message according to the Word of God; he would not use any fine phrases, or attempt to sugar coat the facts. He believed that any man or woman who had not come into right relationship with Jesus Christ would be banished from the presence of God forever. That was the message he had to declare, whether it found general agreement with his hearers or not. The marked attention throughout the whole of the discourse argued in favor of the doctor, and there is every evidence that the meetings will gather strength as the time goes on. On Monday night there was a good attendance, with a large choir. Services are also being held in the afternoons in the Presbyterian church on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Fridays at 3.30.

NEW LIVERY FIRM

The City Livery was taken over yesterday by Messrs. W. A. Whitmore and W. Kerr. These gentlemen have succeeded the business from Grant Bolander, who has been running it successfully for some time past. Both Mr. Whitmore and Mr. Kerr are well and favorably known in the city, neither of them being tenderfoots. Mr. Whitmore was in the livery business here before and always made good. Mr. Kerr is a young man who has a large amount of business "savvy" and a host of friends. Considering the fact that the boys have fourteen of the best drivers and saddle horses in the country and an outfit of rigs that are second to none in the west, it is a cinch that they will do a good business. They tell the Herald that their terms will be reasonable and that they will do their very best to oblige the public. If they do this, and they will, their success is assured.

BOXING CONTEST

Last Friday evening at the Auditorium "Kid" Scaler, the lightweight champion of the Northwest and Eddie Marino, met in a ten round boxing contest. Before the main event there were three preliminary bouts. The first was a three round contest between Harry Bathie and George Kerr, both of this city. The boys went at it hammer and tongs and at the end of the three rounds the contest was declared a draw. The second was a four round go between "Kid" Lacey and "Young" Miller, the fighting barber, both Cranbrook boys. It was a good bout, but at the end of wind, threw up the sponge and Lacey was declared the winner. With more training Miller would have no doubt made a better showing. The third preliminary was undoubtedly the best. It was between "Fighting Paddy" Madigan and Ray Robson. For the first three rounds Paddy had distinctly the best of it, Robson showing every sign of punishment. In the fourth round, however, although Madigan seemingly was winning, Robson landed two blows on the wind which put Paddy out, he taking the count. Frank Dickinson referred the preliminary bouts to the entire satisfaction of the large audience.

The main event was refereed by James Bates and was a good exhibition all through. It was easy to see that Scaler had the best of it and it is probable that the result would not have been the same six ounces in place of ten ounce gloves had been used. Marino put up a hard fight and showed himself a tough little boxer, but he was outclassed by Scaler, who was given the decision on points at the end of the tenth round. The Spokesman-Review, of Spokane, says that it is probable that a ten thousand dollar purse will be hung out in Cranbrook for a go between "Battling" Nelson and "Kid" Scaler and that Scaler wants a $2,500 side bet.

THE RACE MEETING.

The track is now in the very best of condition, in fact better than it was last year or at any time. The box stalls are all in good shape and the water is laid on so that those wishing to train horses here would do so under ideal conditions. The weather is delightful and no better spot could be found for training quarters within the length and breadth of the west. Inquiries are coming in daily from horsemen all over the west as to the big race meeting which is to take place on May 24th and 25th.

LUMBER DEVELOPMENT.

American capitalists interested.

Vancouver, April 4.--Private advice to Vancouver are to the effect that capitalists of Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, New York, and Utah are investing heavily in timber lands in British Columbia and that in addition to the hundreds of thousands of dollars already paid for tracts, at least $1,000,000 worth of timber land is under option. Most of the owners will erect sawmills on their lands. This is believed by some to mean that there will be a material reduction in the tariff on lumber from Canada to the United States. Minneapolis investors have obtained title to the 16,000 acres of fir and spruce timber at Cowichan Lake on Vancouver Island, the price reported being $45,000 cash. Fourteen hundred acres of timber along the line of the Great Northern railway in the Kootenay district were sold for $30,000 to investors of New Westminster, B.C., who will erect a mill. It is estimated the tract contains 30,000,000 feet of timber.

Andrews Howatt, of Salt Lake City, Utah, has just acquired 6,500 acres in British Columbia for $65,000. The same buyer also purchased four sections for $55,000 on Broughton Island, including some of the finest timber in the province.

W. R. Welch and B. T. Lyons, of New York, who recently bought the limits of the Jordan River Timber company, a New York corporation, located on the southwestern shore of British Columbia, on Vancouver Island, which borders on the Straits of San Juan de Fuca, have sold their holdings to members of the Michigan Pacific Lumber company of Grand Rapids, Mich. A standard gauge railway for facilitating the getting out of the logs also figures in the proposition. The tract comprises 1532 acres of crown grants and 31,360 acres of timber leases. This is estimated to contain 2,500,000,000 feet, according to the report of J. P. Grayton, an American cruiser. The new company is incorporated with a capital of $1,500,000.

American capitalists recently acquired immense tracts of timber lands about Cowichan Lake, formerly held by the Canadian Pacific railway company as a part of the W. & N. grant. The sale of the land is conditional on the early completion of the railway which the C.P.R. agreed to build to the holdings. The amount involved in the transaction is said to be nearly $1,000,000. The location of the line has been completed.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES MEET.

A meeting of the school trustees was held last Tuesday evening, the three trustees, Messrs. McCallum, Harvey and Rogers were present. The usual routine work was gone into and the accounts ordered paid.

STANLEY IN CONTEMPT

FERNIE LEDGER EDITOR CITED FOR HIS CRITICISM OF JUDGE WILSON.

Vancouver, April 6.--The full court this morning, Hunter, Irving and Morrison sitting, issued an order directing W. S. Stanley, publisher of the Fernie District Ledger, to appear here on April 19th to show cause why he should not be committed for contempt of court. The action rests upon an article appearing in the Ledger allegedly reflecting on the conduct of a Kootenay case by Judge Wilson. The case was that of Dean, who was brought before him under false pretences in connection with the Globe Insurance company which went out of business as a result of the conflagration. Judge Wilson acquitted Dean.

"It is just as vicious an attack as could be made on a judge," said Deputy Attorney General Maclean in asking for the order, after reading the following extract from the publication forming the basis of action: "If you belong to a few secret fraternal societies and happen to be on the right side of politics, you can commit any crime in the calendar with the certain knowledge that when you come before the bench where justice is supposed to be dispensed, you will be acquitted, a la Dean and the Globe."

"The suggestion was that Judge Wilson acquitted the man because he belonged to the same secret society or because he belonged to the same political party. Nothing more outrageous in the way of comment could appear than that," said Mr. Maclean.

The Chief Justice: "Did you consider the advisability of proceeding by indictment?"

"Yes, but I thought that when a judge was insulted in this gross way this was the proper procedure. It is a case that strikes right at the root of the administration of justice," replied the deputy attorney general.

The only similar case recalled by local lawyers was that of William Adams some years ago, who, while conducting a Sanborn paper office, had criticized a member of the bench. He was committed on refusing to apologize, but a few weeks of prison confinement led to the demanded apology.

THE ANCIENT WHIPPING POST

A. E. Watts, J.P., of Watsburg, spent the whole day taking evidence in camera charging a great strapping young man with attempting to entice a young girl of tender years, and afterwards boasting of what he could do. The culprit confessed when confronted with the evidence.

Mr. Watts gave him his choice of the ash or prison, and for the sake of sparing his parents the disgrace, he chose the lash.

At Watsburg is a great flag staff. The culprit was not tied, but commanded to take off coat and vest, and place his hands on the post. Mr. Watts personally applied the lash, each stripe calling forth yells for mercy.

APPRECIATION.

(Moyle Leader.)

Last week the Cranbrook Herald published the first number of its twelfth volume. From almost the very first issue the paper has been under the personal direction of F. E. Simpson, and in those eleven years he has built up one of the best weekly publications in the country. Cranbrook has been good to the Herald, but Cranbrook should not lose sight of the fact that the Herald has been good to Cranbrook. The Herald says its aim will be to make volume 12 better than any former volume. If this is possible you may rest assured that the "Old Man" and his able lieutenant "Hutch" will do it.

TRAVELS, HIS MIND BLANK.

Bellingham, Wash., April 5.--The case of Kenneth Martin, a wealthy hotel proprietor, of Roseland, B. C., is attracting attention amongst physicians here. Martin left the hotel presumably to attend to business matters in Spokane, returning by way of Seattle to Vancouver, where he was to meet his wife. Evidently the man's memory has been a complete blank since he left home on the trip a few days ago, for when taken from the Great Northern train, which arrived here Sunday he was unconscious and has since declared that he is still in Roseland, although now in a local hospital. The man apparently is in perfect physical condition, but a peculiar affliction of the kidneys is said to be the cause of his strange state of mind.

SALE OF PRINCE RUPERT LOTS

Vancouver, April 6.--The important announcement was made yesterday by Mr. C. D. Rand, government sale agent, that the government of British Columbia and the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway company will hold a joint auction sale of Prince Rupert townsite lots in Vancouver from May 25 to 29. Mr. Rand will control the placing.

THE COAL SITUATION

Operators Say International Officers Agree With Them

Lethbridge Herald, April 5.--The strike will be settled in a few days, in fact, it must be settled, as T. J. Lewis, the international president of the U. M. W. of A. has ordered the district officials to sign up the agreement as ratified by the miners in their referendum vote. At the conclusion of the conference Lewis Stockett wired the particulars to President Lewis and received a reply to the above effect. President Sherman has had a similar message since April 1st and yet he has continued the strike, paying no attention to the order from headquarters.

The telegram given below was received by Lewis Stockett on April 1st, but it was not given out for publication until permission to do so had been received from President Lewis. That permission has been received and the messages are today published.

Sherman has been assuring the miners that they have the support of the International Board in their strike, but according to this telegram it looks as if that support would not be forthcoming. Why President Sherman should continue the strike after receiving orders from President Lewis to sign the agreement will be the subject of an explanation by him.

At the conclusion of the conference on March 31st, when President Sherman refused to sign the ratified agreement Lewis Stockett, president of the Western Coal Operators' Association sent the following message to Mr. Lewis:

Macleod, Alta., Mar. 31, 1909. T. J. Lewis, President, United Mine Workers of America, Indianapolis, Ind., U.S.A.

After negotiations extending over two weeks at Macleod and at which National Board Member Morgan was present as your representative, scale committee arrived at an agreement and disbanded. Conference adjourned to enable referendum vote of miners to be taken. Substantial majority voted to adopt agreement, but at meeting today arranged for by president of District No. 18 and President of Western Coal Operators' Association for the purpose of completing agreement as arranged for before adjournment, President Sherman admitted that referendum vote was in favor of agreement but declined to complete same, alleging that as he had in the meantime made a different agreement with the Crows Nest Coal company, who are not members of our association, he must have that agreement and that he would sign no other, and thereupon withdrew

SHERMAN DENIES BEING NOTIFIED.

(Lethbridge Daily Herald.) This afternoon F. H. Sherman, president of District 18, of the United Mine Workers of America, called upon the Herald from Frank with regard to the telegram published yesterday, from President T. J. Lewis, saying that the district officers had been notified to sign up the agreement. He says that the statement is absolutely untrue. "No such instructions have been received by any district officer." Asked if he could account for the telegram published, Mr. Sherman declared that he knew nothing of it more than he saw in the Herald. This morning he received a message from the International headquarters saying that a member of the International Board was coming to consult with the District Board.

FERNIE

(Special Correspondence.)

Fernie, B. C., April 7.--The big revival meetings inaugurated here last Sunday have called public interest to center in them and they are now the all absorbing topic of conversation in the homes and on the streets. Nearly one hundred persons have already recorded themselves as intending to enroll themselves as soldiers of the cross, and intending to join the church of their choice, as the result of the first three meetings. A daily bulletin, called "The King's Business," has been established under the direction of the general and local committees with Dr. Shearer and Rev. Dr. Gordon (Ralph Connor) as the head officers and already the regular mailing list extends from Halifax to Vancouver. The great organization which has brought this wonderful series of meetings into existence throughout this big field has certainly accomplished a wonderful feat of organization. What the result for good will be cannot be foretold, but that it will justify the labor exerted need no longer to be feared.

FIRE AT THE VULCAN IRON WORKS.

This morning at about one o'clock a fire took place at the Vulcan Iron works. The fire department was on the ground in very quick time and in a few minutes the flames were gotten under control. The cause of the fire and the extent of the damage are not yet known, but the building was badly damaged and most of the machinery injured.

CRANBROOK LAND DISTRICT.

DISTRICT OF EAST KOOTENAY

Take notice that Malcolm McInnes, of Elkmouth, B. C., occupation, Lumberman, intends to apply for permission to purchase the following described land: Commencing at a post planted at the intersection of the eastern boundary of the right-of-way of the Crows Nest Southern Railway, with the northern boundary of Lot 123, Group One, Kootenay District, thence east along said boundary 80 chains, thence north 80 chains, thence west to the eastern boundary of Lot 4142, Group One, thence south to the south-east corner of Lot 4142, thence west along the southern boundary of said Block 4142 to the eastern boundary of the right-of-way of the Crows Nest Southern Railway, thence south along the said eastern boundary of said right-of-way to the point of commencement and containing 480 acres, more or less.

YOU CAN BUY AN ORCHARD HOME FOR $10.00 PER MONTH

BUT YOU MUST TAKE ADVANTAGE OF OUR OFFER AT ONCE

We are the largest owners of first-class Fruit Lands on direct existing lines of transportation in British Columbia, and in order to advertise the West Kootenay District -- the greatest in the world -- we have decided that for a short time only we will sell orchard tracts in our model sub-division-- FRUITVALE -- for $10 down and $10 per month without interest for 10 ACRES.

This offer will be withdrawn in a very short time, after which the terms will be one-fifth of the purchase price in cash and the balance at 6 per cent. interest. You must act quickly in order to get in on the easy terms.

FRUITVALE is located 40 miles south of Nelson, on the Spokane division of the Great Northern Railway, in the southernmost and warmest valley in the West Kootenay District, Southern British Columbia. The railroad runs through the sub-division and the townsite and railroad station are located in the centre, with twenty-five miles of wagon roads radiating therefrom. Each orchard tract fronts on one of these roads, which are cut out, graded, and improved with bridges, culverts, etc.

The Provincial Government has made an appropriation of $50,000 to be expended in the district in which FRUITVALE is located this year.

FRUITVALE has daily passenger and freight trains; post office with daily mail; school; church services; four general stores; meat market; two lumber yards; broom factory; hotel; and 350 population. It is expected that one, and probably two, large saw mills will be started shortly.

FRUITVALE lies in a broad and beautiful valley, watered by numerous streams of pure water; the mountains are low and sunlight plenty; the soil is rich fruit loam with clay subsoil, level to gently sloping and uniformly free from stone. There is a home with good neighbors every few yards. YOU WILL MAKE A MISTAKE if you don't send us your name and address to-day, so that we can give you, free of charge, maps, plans, photos and specific descriptions of these Grand Orchard Homes for only $10 per month. WRITE IMMEDIATELY OR YOU WILL BE TOO LATE.

JOHN BULL PLAYS APRIL FOOL ON UNCLE SAM.

San Francisco, April 2.—Britishers today are immensely amused over John Bull playing an April-fool joke on Uncle Sam yesterday, when the British gunboat Shearwater of the British Columbia station slipped into the San Francisco harbor from the south during the early hours of the morning, amidst a slight fog, and anchored unobserved by the United States lookouts on land and sea.

At the military reservations and in shipping circles they are still wondering how it all happened, whilst the merry crowd of British blue-jackets under command of Capt. Crawford, is making merry of the incident whereby the vigilance of the United States lookouts proved unequal to the Shearwater's tactics in gaining shelter unobserved.

The woman who deliberates is won.

Where there's a will there's a way.

OXFORD WINS.

Putney, April 3.—In one of the most exciting contests in the history of the famous inter-varsity race, Oxford won from Cambridge today by three lengths and a half in 19 minutes and fifty seconds. Had the Oxonians been pressed at the finish the time would have been much faster. As far as Barnes' bridge it was anyone's race, but from thence the superior style and strength of the dark blues began to tell.

Cambridge had the heaviest crew they ever put on the river but disappointed their supporters who were betting two to one on their chances at the start. By winning Oxford broke the sequence of three Cambridge victories and prevents D.C.R. Stewart, the Cambridge captain, creating a new record by stroking a boat four times to victory.

At the start Oxford stroked 39 and Cambridge 38, the former getting off with a slight lead, but the light blues overhauled the nose between them at Hammersmith Bridge, the crews were on even terms.

From there to Barnes a stroke of 38 to the minute began to tell on Stuart's stroke of 36 to the minute and Oxford drew ahead again until the spectator's boat got in the way. Oxford were forced to swerve a lot and Cambridge pulled up level. Opposite Thorneycroft's, however, Stuart, by a well-judged spurt pulled up level again.

Excitement was now terrific along the shore. Passing Barnes boats were even, but from there to Oxford began to show their superiority and better staying qualities and at Barnes bridge daylight showed between them. The light blues gave unmistakable signs of weakening under the heart-breaking ordeal but gamely struggled to pull up to their rival. The Oxonians, however, came right away and were never headed. The time this year was slower than last year, which was 19 min., 19 seconds. This was the 66th inter-varsity boat race.

TO HAVE SIX PAPERS.

(Prince Rupert Empire.)

Prince Rupert is to have six newspapers, once lots in the townsite are sold. One is to be financed by the G.T.P., and edited by the McBride wing of the Conservative party; another is to be financed by the Liberal party and edited by a Conservative now in the employ of the Victoria Times; a third is to be financed by a real estate syndicate and managed and edited by a club president resident in Prince Rupert; a fourth is to be financed by the syndicate of Liberals who were to finance Skeena district for Conservative Candidate Mike Manson and is to be managed and edited by an ex-collector of the port of Prince Rupert; a fifth is to be owned by Toronto capitalists and managed in the interests of the Canadian Bank of Commerce and other employers of Asiatic labor. The Empire is to pass into the hands of Pat Daly and Bill Blanchfield, who will use it as a club to beat brains into the heads of workmen.

The enjoyment of a meal depends about as much on who's around the table as what's on the table.

ROGERS PRESIDENT

Toronto, Ont., Mar. 30.—The directors' meeting this morning elected Elias Rogers president of the Crows Nest Pass Coal company. E. C. Whitney was elected vice-president, while R. M. Young is the secretary. Elias Rogers is also treasurer, besides being president. The other four directors are Col. W. P. Clough, W. H. Robinson, J. P. Graves and H. B. McGivern.

J. D. Hurd, of Fernie, is the general manager. G. G. S. Lindsay, the late president, is retained as the solicitor.

Elias Rogers said this morning: "There will be no change in the personnel of the company. We have more markets than we can supply and we are going to put the mines in a position to supply them."

GENERAL BOOTH 80 YEARS OLD ON APRIL 10TH.

General Booth will be eighty years old on April 10th, and, all over the world, salutations of every degree and almost every color are preparing to celebrate the event. In many respects this birthday of the general will be a momentous occasion. It not only represents the fact that the general has exceeded by a decade the Biblical "three score years and ten," but promises to be almost a turning point in the fate of the vast organization over which, at present, he exercises control.

In the thousands of army barracks and outposts in various countries, speculation is rife as to General Booth's possible successor, for one thing is fairly certain, the time is rapidly approaching when that will have to be announced. Most people imagine that no one else but Bramwell Booth, the general's eldest son and present chief-of-staff of the Army, can succeed to the head of the organization when the great moving spirit has departed. But, on the other hand, there are weighty opinions to the effect that Bramwell has not the dominating individuality for the job, and that when the general passes from the theatre of activity, the army will be kept going without a "general."

It might be mentioned in this connection that neither the general, nor Bramwell Booth makes a "good thing" out of the army. It is doubtful if Bramwell Booth receives more than $2,000 a year, if that, while the general's expenses come also within this sum. The latter has never consulted his own financial interests in managing the army. I might give you a case in point. In the early days it was arranged that the general should receive all the royalties from the sale of books published by the army. Before very long these royalties amounted to some thousands of pounds yearly. The general, announced before a council meeting that as these royalties had amounted to so considerable a sum he had decided to turn them over to the army. That does not look like a very grasping policy.

Most of the staff officers in the Army are making now about half of what their earning capacity would be if they were out in the world as ordinary workers. This fact should be known, as there is much misconception concerning it.

OLD COUNTRY NEWS

INTERESTING ITEMS

Dressed in a well worn coat and corduroy trousers, with a faded blue shirt and iron-bound clogs, a pit boy stood in the midst of a fashionable throng at Claridge's hotel, in London, the other day. He was Harry Murten, aged seventeen, who had come from Barnsley to receive the silver medal of Our Dumb Friends League, for his pluck in rescuing his own life to save that of a little black colliery pony named Prophet. The incident happened at the Woolley colliery, where Murten and the pony had worked together for four years. The pony, pulling three empty trucks, was being driven by the boy up an incline in the colliery workings, when the roof cracked above them, covering the three trucks, but instead of immediately rushing from the spot, Murten stayed behind and liberated the pony from the trucks. A moment afterwards ten tons of earth fell where the pony had been standing. "Had I left poor old Prophet he would have been dead for sure," said the lad. Just as he would have stepped from the cage at the pit-head Murten came forward to receive his reward. A lighted safety lamp swung in his left hand, and for the purposes of a faithful representation his face was blackened with coal dust. The heartiness of his welcome overcame his shyness, and he managed a half-bow and smile of thanks as Julia, Marchioness of Tweeddale handed him the league medal.

Called to a house at Dolven, near Aberystwyth, the other night, a policeman found a man named Thomas Hannan standing only half-dressed surveying the wreckage of what had a little while previously been the home of his father-in-law, himself, and his wife. Hannan was mounted on a pile of broken furniture, ornaments, and the remains of a piano. The story told in the police court on the following day suggested that there had been considerable family jarring. Some days before the affair, however, Hannan himself soon after departed, promising not again to bother his father-in-law. Late on the following night, however, he returned, and the father-in-law had eventually to go in search of a policeman. When they returned they found the cottage a scene of destruction and chaos. The piano and sewing machine had been pattered to pieces with a hammer, the clock was smashed, pictures torn from the walls and rent in pieces. Chairs and tables and all the other furniture had been treated with equal violence. At the police court Hannan was remanded until a full inventory of the damage is made.

Brought before the Preston magistrates recently as not being under proper guardianship, a diminutive boy named Francis Glaze, eleven years of age, was remanded for a week after a remarkable account had been given of his alleged proficiency in thefts of a particular order. The chief constable informed the court that Glaze was the leader of a gang of boy thieves who went about robbing letter and pillar boxes in different parts of the town. On the previous Sunday alone the prisoner obtained in this manner cheques, postal orders, etc., to the value of £100, and he had given the postal authorities a great amount of trouble. On another occasion he obtained over £60. Detective Woodacre stated that the boy had a remarkably small hand and a thin arm, which he could thrust through apertures in the boxes and so abstract the contents. The prisoner hid his plunder in a cellar underneath his school and in crevices in different parts of the town. Although so young, he was absolutely beyond control, and frequented the company of thieves.

A private of the Northamptonshire regiment, recently escaped from the military prison at Colchester in a daring and dramatic manner. In the early hours of the morning he rang the alarm bell in his cell, and when the warden answered it, he stunned him with the metal end of the fire hose. Having tied the warden hand and foot he rolled him under the bed, seized his keys, and escaped. The soldier was traced to Warley, twenty-five miles away, but evaded capture, and was last heard of in London. The warden lies in the military hospital at Colchester in a critical condition.

OBSERVATIONS BY THE OLD MAN.

Even the most rabid Conservative must admit that the Hon. George E. Foster showed in a very bright light in the passage of arms he had with Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the Dominion House last week. Mr. Foster evoked the aid of the chair against members saying "disagreeable or offensive things." If there is anyone in Canadian public life who has a bitter tongue, it is the same George E. Foster. Sir Wilfrid did not appeal to the chair and it is rather amusing to read of the efforts of the speaker to smooth over the discussion without being compelled to "call down" the first minister of the crown. Sir Wilfrid's frankness in refusing to take cover under a construction of his words which he had not really intended, and in bowing to the rule against him, cannot but be admired. The whole thing was an unfortunate incident and one that seldom occurs in the Canadian House of Commons.

Lord Strathcona writes the Canadian government that he is anxious to take part in the good work of training the youth of the Dominion, and makes a gift of $250,000 to encourage physical and military drill in Canada's public schools.

If you are in business in Cranbrook, if you own any property or if you are a wage earner here and in consequence are interested in the town, you should be a member of the Board of Trade. The fee is $5.00 for a business man and $2.00 for all others. The Board is doing all in its power to help you—get in line and help the board.

Those interested in the raising of poultry should read A. B. Smith's article in this issue of the Herald. It contains a lot of information.

What Cranbrook wants and should have is a settlers rate from Spokane and stop-over privileges for those having tickets to points further on. Last night there was a party of five went through from Spokane. They had heard of Cranbrook and this valley through the advertising done by the Board of Trade and wanted to stop over here a day to look at the country, but could not get a stop over privilege. In this way Cranbrook gets the worst of it.

The best of authority on soil and climate says that every portion of British Columbia is suited for fruit and vegetable raising. We know that East Kootenay will prove a veritable gold mine along these lines.

The Herald receives requests every week from Western Canada and the States asking for sample copies of this paper. The people want to read the Herald so as to get the news of this country.

Send the Herald to your friends in the States so that they may become acquainted with the glorious opportunities of this district.

Many happy returns of the day next Saturday to the veteran Salvationist, General Booth, who will be eighty years of age.

Father L. Choinel, O.M.I., Pastor.

RECORD OF A BRITISH COLUMBIA FLOCK.

An article in the Farmer's Advocate, of Winnipeg, from the pen of A. B. Smith, of Fort Steele, is to be reproduced, as it shows what can be done by the proper handling of poultry in this country:

As it is past the close of the poultry man's year I am now able to give an exact statement of the yield of my flock since January 1st, 1908. At that time the flock consisted of eighty-eight females, about thirty-six White Wyandottes, the rest White Leghorns and in the lot less than half were pullets. An accurate account was kept of all eggs laid and such were used for hatching or kitchen were booked at the same price as those marketed at that time. Each month the average number of hens for the month was put down also and by this it will be seen that, contrary to the usual case, after July 1st the yield in cash per hen was as great for six months as in the first six, which included the spring flush. This is accounted for by the continuous killing off of the flocks during the spring, and in June I sold what Leghorns had left in a bunch, as they have not been nearly so satisfactory as the Wyandottes. If I had had from the first only those I kept at the last, the average yield would have been far greater.

Month	No. hens	Dozen	Value	Aver. per hen cents
January	88	24.4	$11.10	12.62
February	86	50.8	18.95	22.03
March	80	76.8	26.80	33.5
April	48	76.10	26.85	39.18
May	63	56	19.60	31.11
June	53	27	9.45	17.83
July	29	30.8	10.50	36.2
August	28	30.5	10.85	38.75
September	28	27.4	9.45	33.75
October	28	14.2	7.00	25
November	28	5	3.50	12.5

The total value for the year was $151.05 and the average for the year per hen was $3.02. Eggs sold at 50 cents and 40 cents in January, 10 and 35 cents in February, 35 cents the rest of the year until October, when they were 50 cents and November, 70 cents, and I sold a few dozen pullets' eggs at 90 cents last week (December) which is the best I ever got in open market.

In reviewing the above it will be noticed that the 28 hens retained to the last gave practically a dollar and a half per head after July 1st, in this was a lot of eight old hens, two and three years each, that had raised chicks and in August, September and October these eight gave, on several different weeks, upwards of forty eggs per week, one week giving forty-seven and another forty-six. This was easily remarked because they had never returned to the hen house after brooding, but occupied a stable at a distance where they had been kept as a special breeding pen in the spring.

I cannot say what cost of feed was, as I fed wheat in the straw entirely last year, no mash or condiments whatever, but plenty of mangels and green home in winter with lots of crushed bone and grit at all times and free range in summer. When buying feed, however, in former years, it cost about a dollar and a half per head and should be a bit less when raised at home.

(Experience such as Mr. Smith's is valuable, in that it shows whether or not a man is getting all possible out of his flock. Our poultry-keeping readers who have any similar experiences to relate are invited to do so.—Ed.)

WHAT THE ADVANCE AGENT SAYS.

When it is said that Florence Roberts, who has played a remarkably varied line of parts with always superior artistry, has won the surpassing success of her career in her new play "The House of Bondage," there remains no room for pessimism regarding the result of her forthcoming engagement at the Auditorium on Saturday, April 17th. It is common talk in theatrical circles that Miss Roberts has in "The House of Bondage" the dramatic "find" of the season. The work is by Seymour Obermer, a brilliant English dramatist, who is said not only to have evolved a strikingly original theme, but also to have clothed it in remarkably beautiful language.

In point of construction, also, Mr. Obermer is said to have demonstrated the value of numerous revolutionary ideas of his own.

Miss Roberts in "The House of Bondage," has a role in which she is seen at her best, and the Roberts best is a dramatic value to conjure with. John Cort has given the star a strong support, among the players presenting the well-known names of Arthur Forrest, Thurlow Bergen, Kent Bosworth, Harriet Gibb, Ann Warrington and Mary Bertrand.

WATTS AND THE C. P. R.

THE FORMER REPLIES TO SIR THOMAS SHAUGHNESSY.

A. E. Watts, of Wattsburg, lumber baron, experimental horticulturist, mechanical genius, land owner, publisher, has now taken up the role as champion of the rights of the people, and has by way of correspondence with the C.P.R. officials, appearing before the railway commission and addressing the public through the medium of the newspapers presented his claims. Some time ago Mr. Watts wrote to the president of the C.P.R. asking him to have certain conditions that he did not deem fair to the people of this district rectified. The answer of Sir Thomas did not meet with the approval of the sage of Wattsburg, as he deemed it curt and discourteous. The C.P.R. president asked for a bill of particulars, and Mr. Watts' reply, which covers several folios of type writing, and too long for the Herald to print, after receiving so late in the week, came as a surprise to those wrong committed and rights disregarded. The reply is caustic in its creation, minute in detail, expansive in the field it covers and direct in its evident aim. It will be interesting to see the reply that will be made by the C.P.R. president.

DEATH OF HENRY PATMORE.

Died, at Cranbrook, B.C., on Thursday, April 1st, 1909, Henry Patmore, aged 69 years, of heart trouble.

The death of Mr. Patmore was a great surprise to the people of Cranbrook, as he had been on the streets during the latter part of the afternoon apparently feeling better than he had for some time. At his evening meal he complained a little of a pain in the region of his heart, but soon felt easier, and about 9 o'clock retired for the night. About half an hour after he had retired he was found to be dead in his bed, his death having evidently been a quiet and peaceful one.

Mr. Patmore was born in London, England, and came to the province of Ontario when three years of age with his parents. After arriving at manhood he engaged in farming for a time near Bethany and later in life entered the hardware business in Lower Ontario. He was married about 45 years ago at Bethany and survived his wife 11 years. Eight years ago he came to Cranbrook to live with his children, who had preceded him and during his residence here in his quiet, manly way, made many strong friends. Throughout his life he has been a member of the Methodist church and for many years was leader of the choir of the church, to which he belonged. The deceased leaves four sons: Joseph, G. W. and Ernie Patmore, of Cranbrook, and L. W. Patmore, of Prince Rupert, and a daughter, Mrs. Jabez Harris, of Camrose, Alberta. The children were all present at the funeral except L. W. Patmore, of Prince Ru-

HILL & COMPANY

THE HILL MOVES

W. D. Hill, manager of Hill & Co., is going to the coast to live permanently. It is the doctor's orders and Mr. Hill says it is better to be a live man at the coast than a dead man in Cranbrook.

1st MOVE.—Sale of entire Furniture Stock to Fink Mercantile Company.

2nd MOVE.—Moving Ladies Goods to furniture store.

3rd MOVE.—Reducing the Stock to a selling basis.

4th MOVE.—Mr. Hill's departure for the coast in 30 days.

These moves mean a big move in prices—a move downwards—and what a move it will be. In fact the stock must be reduced in the next thirty days, and Mr. Hill says, no matter what reduction in prices is necessary he will sell the goods before he leaves Cranbrook. It is going to be the golden opportunity for the people of this district. The sale includes everything in the store, in both ladies' and men's departments.

Watch for next week's Advertisement in the Herald.

FOR MEN ONLY.

Dr. Toy will give a special address to men only on Sunday afternoon at the Auditorium at 4 o'clock. Boys under fifteen will not be admitted. Mr. J. W. Reynolds will lead the men's choir. There should be a large audience to greet Dr. Toy on Sunday afternoon. The men of Cranbrook and the surrounding district will do well to make every effort to hear this well known speaker from the United States. Dr. Toy is a man of wide experience among men; he knows of what he speaks, he has seen some of the dark side of life and is able to use this knowledge with telling effect. The business and professional men, the men from the C.P.R., the men from the mines and the camps around Cranbrook, and the men around town are earnestly invited to come. Don't use the old argument that you haven't got a frock coat and a silk hat. Dr. Toy does not want to talk to clothes but to men, and the man in overalls will be a heartily welcomed as though he were dressed in broadcloth. Let every man in town be present next Sunday afternoon at 4 in the opera house. Mr. Reynolds has a fine voice, and will most likely sing a solo, and the men's choir will be worth hearing.

ALL OVER THE PROVINCE

The provincial government is to pay one-third of the cost of the new school building in Revelstoke.

The Edenbank Creamery company, of Chilliwack, has distributed over $57,000 profits from last year's operations. The company made almost a quarter of a million pounds of butter in the year, the average selling price being 29¢.

The Arrow Lakes Lumber company will begin next month on the construction of their logging railway from Galena Bay into their timber at Galena Pass. The railway will be four miles in length and logging operations will be continued all summer.

Owing to the late session the north east arm of Upper Arrow Lake is still full of ice and while the Bowman Lumber company's mill at Comaplix will start up as soon as the ice goes out and logs can be got to the mill. It is doubtful whether a start can be made before the end of April.

Two thousand acres of land on Dog Lake is to be irrigated by J. Ritchie of Summerland, by what is known as the pressure pipe system. The pipes conveying the water will be three feet under ground and will have a pressure of 300 feet head. Reservoirs will contain in addition to that, for irrigation purposes, water sufficient to meet all domestic requirements and will be supplied through the same pipes. One advantage of the pressure pipe system is that there are no unsightly flumes or ditches. This method of distributing irrigation water will be the only one of its kind in Canada, and there is only one other system in the whole of the United States—that at Lewiston, Idaho.

Thomas Wood died in Victoria recently at the ripe age of 91 years. He is a native of London, England, and arrived in Victoria in 1862.

At Vancouver recently Judge Grant sentenced Edwin Nolan to ten years imprisonment and George Smith to five years for stealing by wholesale in Pender harbor. Nolan had been convicted on five previous occasions, and this accounted for the length of his sentence.

Hon. Dr. Young, provincial secretary and minister of education, announces that in addition to the six school sites reserved by the government at Prince Rupert by agreement with the G.T.P., a half a block has been set aside as a site for a public hospital, the construction of which is already planned. Tenders are being called for an eight-room school of frame construction.

The timber limits of Joseph Fisher, of Vancouver, have been sold to Andrew Howat, of Salt Lake, Utah. The area comprises eight sections on Craycroft island, up the coast. The price was $65,000. The same buyers also bought 6,500 acres of timber lands from Messrs. Danaher & Hulbert, of Vancouver. The consideration was $55,000. The limits are situated on Broughton Island.

The city of Victoria will call for applications for the position of chief of the fire brigade and fire marshal to succeed Chas. Watson, who has placed his resignation in the hands of the fire wardens. Friends of Thomas Deasy, former fire chief of Victoria and later of Nelson, are naming him as the most likely candidate for the vacant office of fire chief. He held the position for several years and is regarded as one of the most scientific fire fighters on the continent.

The Keremeos Trumpet hopes Jim Hill does not joke in setting April 1st as date for starting to build on the road there.

Greenwood council having voted a bonus to the tunnel, activity is on foot. The Ledge declares the success of the tunnel to be the hope of the city for future growth, and is certain that it will tap the high grade ores showing above.

Vernon will spend $2,000 in selecting packing and exhibiting fruit at the different exhibitions this year.

The C.P.R. is putting a new tug on the Arrow Lakes and also a new steel steamer better than the Rossland.

The report that Jim Hill and Grandy company interests had control of the Crown Nest Coal company was confirmed from Toronto last week.

Point Grey will submit a bylaw for the construction of $300,000 worth of new roads.

Business men of Greenwood have staked placer ground on Rock Creek and will work it. Some of the dirt runs $1 a yard.

The Golden Zone is a new mine being developed at Hedley. A fifty foot shaft has been sunk on the hanging well of the fissure and shows up well.

The month of March shows an excess of $750,000 for building permits in Vancouver, making a total of over $1,500,000 for the first quarter of the year. This is an increase of 50 per cent over March last year and of 25 per cent for the quarter. Permits for about two hundred houses and business buildings were taken out in March.

The C.P.R. is about to inaugurate an active programme of development of Shaughnessy Heights. That district will be the du luxe residential suburb of Vancouver. The company has already cleared a large portion of the Heights. It will now lay out rough grade streets, lay down pavements, install waterpipes and sewers, build boulevards, plant trees and lay out a fine park. John B.

Bright, the well known contractor, commenced work on Thursday. Building lots will likely be on the market in June.

The Canadian-Mexican Steamship company are considering the erection at Tehuantepec of elevators to handle grain across the Isthmus of Panama. The company will also place more boats on the Pacific coast run and will establish a direct line of boats from the eastern terminus of the Tehuantepec railway to Eastern Canada. It is claimed that grain can be carried by the Isthmus route to Europe at rates equal to those via Suez with a considerable saving in time. The completion of the Panama canal will greatly accentuate the advantages of this route.

Fort Langley, where the licensed bar has been a feature of the town since the fur-trading days of the Hudson's Bay company, has decided in favor of temperance, and the town will become dry after July 1st next.

The ranchers in the vicinity of Grand Forks have commenced spring work.

The C.P.R. is putting in a spur at Lequime's sawmill, near Grand Forks.

Kenneth Munro has been appointed Lloyd's agent for Prince Rupert and Skeena district.

As soon as boats are running on Trout lake the mines at Ferguson will commence shipments of ore.

The Hosmer ovens shipped 2,400 tons of coke to the Trail smelter in March.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Jarvis, of the Royal hotel, Hosmer, met with a very serious accident last week. Mr. Jarvis has painters renovating and kalsomining the hotel and one of them had unlocked an upper outside door, leaving it open in order to accelerate the drying of the walls, and little Jack in running about ran too near the opening and fell to the sidewalk, twelve or fourteen feet below, breaking his thigh bone.

The government telephone line between Summerland and Nicola is being repaired.

Thirty men are employed on the Standard group at Silverton.

P. S. Coulter, manager of the Le Roi Two at Rossland, cabled the following summary of the mine operations for February: "Shipped 2,700 tons. Receipts from smelter are $51,307, being payment for 3,173 tons shipped."

Real estate sales at Kamloops last week amounted to $50,000.

The Y.M.C.A. of Victoria is to erect a building which will cost $100,000.

It is reported W. W. B. McInnes will be appointed county court judge at Vancouver.

Armstrong ratepayers have voted to spend $2,500 to improve its agricultural grounds.

The Coldstream ranch, Vernon, will install a plant for the evaporation of apples, which business the management intends to go into extensively this season.

The Victoria club has been incorporated for $100,000, with some of the most prominent men of that city as stockholders, and arrangements are now being made to pull off a six-day race meet, beginning May 24.

The marathon dance epidemic is on the increase. Kamloops is next in line. Prizes are given to the couple dancing the furthest distance in a given time, as well as to the couple making a given distance in a given time.

TENDERS WANTED.

"THE COWBOY BARONET."

SIR GENILLE CAVE-BROWN-CAVE PROVES ZAM-BUK EXCELLENT FOR HURTS AND SORES.

Sir Genille Cave-Brown-Cave, of Stretton Hall, Ashby-de-la-Zouch, Leicestershire, who is better known in Canada as "The Cowboy Baronet," has had a wide experience of the value of Zam-Buk. Writing to a friend recently, and speaking of this great balm, he says:

"I feel it is only my duty to let you know what great benefit I have derived by keeping Zam-Buk handy, and having it in constant use. For the sprains and bruises which I have occurred in my horsemanship, and in my cowboy life generally, I have found it a reliable and speedy healer. Some of the best Riders in the west that I know, use Zam-Buk regularly with the greatest benefit. I may mention that, one occasion, my horse, "Bob," came down with me, rolling over my limbs, and tearing pieces of skin off my arms. By use of Zam-Buk immediately the wounds and bruises were cleaned and quickly healed, and the raw parts covered with new, healthy skin.

"When on the Mexican plains, I have used Zam-Buk for poisonous insect-bites.

"Zam-Buk has yielded me far more remarkable results and generally proved more reliable than anything could have done in the way of mere ointments or embrocations, and I think it unequalled for skin injuries and diseases."

No clearer evidence than the above from this well-known Baronet could be needed to prove the unique merit of Zam-Buk, and to show the wisdom of always keeping handy a box of this wonderful balm.

Zam-Buk is Nature's own healing balm, being composed of pure herbal essences. It is a sure cure for eczema, ring-worm, ulcers, cuts, burns, bruises, poisoned sores, chronic wounds, bad leg, piles, festering sores, and all skin injuries and diseases. Druggists and stores everywhere sell at 50c. a box, or post free for price from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, 3 boxes $1.25. You are warned against harmful imitations, sometimes represented to be "just as good."

Rambling Reveries

BY A DREAMER

EASTER THOUGHTS.

Kneeling beside her 'mid a kneeling through

In the dim twilight of the temple, where

The Easter buds, scent laden, filled the air

With sweet aroma, and the solemn song,

Low chanting, floated through the holy place,

I watched the curtain of her melting eyes

Veil their soft radiance, and o'er their fair face

Stole reverent stillness, as with gentle sighs

Sins from her sinless lips were soon confessed,

(Ah, fairest saint, were all sins but as thine!)

Then lifting her white forehead from its pillowed rest

Turning her sad, sweet visage, pure with thought divine,

She murmured, bending toward me as I sat,

"Charles, Mrs. Smith yet wears her winter hat!"

Beautiful Easter tide. Had not that Roman seal been broken, and the powers of darkness thwarted, there would have been no light at Easter tide.

Son of righteousness has risen with healing in His wings and now His glory is the light of Easter day.

A German Easter custom is to light fires on the hillside of the Hartz, obtaining the holy water from the streams at midnight, when the good spirit moves the waters, and the presentation of cakes, shaped in the form of the rising sun, are made special features of the occasion.

It has often been asked why an egg is the symbol of Easter. The use of eggs for Easter can be traced to the theology and philosophy of Egyptians, Persians, Gauls, Greeks and Romans, among all of whom an egg was a symbol of the universe, the work of the Supreme Divinity. The Persians gave presents of eggs at the feast of the vernal equinox—in honor of the renewal of all things. The Jews adopted it to meet the circumstances of their history as a type of their departure from Egypt, and it was used in the feast of the passover as a part of the furnishing of the table with the Paschal lamb. The early Druids also used the egg in their ceremonies.

In Switzerland a peculiar game is played at Easter. Large baskets filled with brand are placed in a circle somewhere on a free field or public place. Then as many rows of 100 eggs as there are competitors are laid, each egg a foot or so apart from the next, the rows radiating from the baskets to an equal distance. The task is to put the 100 eggs, one by one, into the basket without breaking any, and who does it in the shortest space of time is the winner.

The Easter festival of our forefathers covered a period of 15 days. The week beginning with Easter Sunday was most entirely given over to sport and games and general merry-making. An odd feature of the old time celebration was that of heaving or lifting, the "heaved" sitting in a chair decorated with white ribbons. Easter Monday and Easter Thursday were known as heaving days, the women sitting in a chair on Monday and the men on Tuesday. Those heaving or lifting the chair were expected to lift it three times, and then kiss the occupant, who, in turn, kissed them. To the regret of the lads and lassies in the districts where the novel ceremony was once performed, the custom has long since died out.

Easter was not kept as a festival until the fifth or sixth century, but previous to that the question of establishing it as a feast day came before the council on Nice, when it was decided authoritatively that Easter was henceforth to be the Sunday following the 14th day of the calendar moon which happened upon or next after the 21st of March so that if this 14th day be a Sunday Easter was not to be on that date but on the next following Sunday. Easter day, therefore, may be on any day within five weeks inclusive of March 22 and April 25. It cannot happen earlier not later than these two dates. In 1883, Easter occurred on March 25, and again in 1891, which will be twice in the present century. In 1951 it will occur again on March 25.

There are many superstitions connected with Easter Sunday which are significant of the season, and are almost as imperative as laws. One of these is the necessity of having something new to wear on this day in order to insure happiness for the coming year. Hence the Easter bonnet. Another one is that on that day the sun dances. This is an old legend, and the lines from Sir John Suckling are well known: "But oh, she dances such a way—No sun upon an Easter day Is half so fair a sight."

It is also claimed in heather countries, where the superstition originated, that the lambs frisk and dance in the light of the rising sun on Ostro, the name of the heathen divinity who was also represented as dancing and who gave to our Easter its name.

EASTER SUNDAY.

Easter Sunday, which for centuries was observed only by certain churches is now almost universally kept as a day of days, all evangelical churches symbolizing it as the anniversary commemorative of the resurrection of Christ, a festival which in the early Christian era was distinguished as the Sunday of joy, and which Gregory Nazianzen 1,500 years ago called the "queen of the days, that excels all others as far as the sun exceeds the other stars, and which is still known in the east as the "bright day." Another typical name for Easter is the "Holiday of Hope."

There is a wonderful charm and fascination in this queen festival of the year, which dominates the whole world with its wonderful lessons of returning life. Not only is the deep religious significance of the occasion illustrated in the most attractive and beautiful form as a lesson to the eye, and through that to the heart, but the joyful features of Easter, the upspringing of hope and the miracle of returning life, inspire a condition of joy and happiness in the lives of young and old, and the most insensible object becomes a part of the carnival of joy.

We want girls of sense, girls who have a standard of their own, independent of conventionalities, and are brave enough to live up to it; girls who simply won't wear a trailing skirt on the street because fashion dictates; girls who will don what is pretty and becoming and snap their fingers at the edict of an ugly style.

We want good girls, girls who are sweet right straight out from the heart, and with the wisdom of an old simple-minded girl; with less knowledge, duplicity and evil-doing at 25 than the pert little school miss of ten has nowadays. We want careful girls and prudent, who think enough of the generous father, toiling early and late to maintain them in comfort or of the gentle mother denying herself much that they may have pretty things, to take care of their clothes and draw the line sharply between the essentials and the non-essentials of their needs; girls who strive fully as hard to save as they do to spend; girls who are unselfish and thoughtful and seek to be a joy in the home rather than an expensive burden.

TAKE TIME.

Let us take time for the good-bye kiss. We shall go to the day's work with a sweeter spirit for it. Let us take time to speak kind words to those we love. By-and-by, when they can no longer hear us, our foolishness will seem more wise than our best wisdom. Let us take time to be pleasant. The small courtesies which we often omit because they are small will some day look larger to us than the wealth which we have coveted, or the fame for which we have struggled. Let us take time to get acquainted with our families. The wealth you are accumulating may be a doubtful blessing to the son who is a stranger to you. Your beautifully kept house, busy mother, can never be a home to the daughter whom you have no time to caress.

TRAINING THE GIRLS

The foundation of society rests on its home. The success of our homes rests on the wives. Therefore, first of all, teach our girls how to be successful wives. Begin in their infancy to develop their characters. Teach them that jealousy is an immorality, and gossip a vice. Train them to keep the smallest promise as sacredly as an oath, and to speak of people only as they would speak of them. Teach them to look for the best quality in everyone they meet, and to notice other people's faults only to avoid them. Train them to be on small things well and to delight in helping others, and the necessity for sacrifice for others' pleasure as a means of soul development. Once given a firm foundation of character like this, which the poorest as well as the richest can give to their girls, and no matter what necessity arises, they will be able to rise above it.

Treat your wife as though she were a queen and that will help make her one.

We are inclined to think that heaven will be given to those who are trying to make a heaven on this earth.

DISCOURTEOUS HUSBANDS.

We recently heard a woman remark: "I suppose my husband is as good a man as ever lived, but his mother did not train him to be courteous to ladies. His sisters were his slaves, and thereby he spoiled as a husband. I wish I could train several hundred boys to be husbands for the next generation. Do you suppose they'd consider it their prerogative to drive the girls out of the easiest chair, take the sunniest corner of the room, the best place by the light, throw books, papers or slippers down for some one to pick up, grow up with the idea that a wife must be valued, and the rest of the household stand respectfully by to obey orders? You smile, but this is anything but a subject to laugh over. I really believe that husbands never think that their unkind words hurt. They don't realize the difference to us—for instance in their manner when they come to dinner. All day the wife has been alone with the servants and the children, and is more hungry for a kind word from her husband than an epicure feast. He comes in just as the dinner bell rings. "For a wonder, dinner is once ready on time," the husband says. "I couldn't have saved the heartstab by saying, 'That's a pleasant sound to a hungry fellow.' And if dinner is not quite ready, why need he say, 'Of course not, never is.' In working motives for the home, why hasn't some one taken Wesley's remark, 'I'd sooner sweat as fret,' instead of hanging up, 'I Need Thee Every Hour.' Of course men appreciate their wives, but they too often keep their polite manners and courteous way for others."

LOOK AHEAD

(Gateway International.)

There is likely to be plenty of work doing on on both sides of the international boundary this summer, particularly on the Canadian side. Copper, it is said, will be dearer. For many years the low price of this metal made times hard in the Kootenays. Lumber is wanted, not only for building, but also for railroad ties for the many railroads now in course of construction. News from Eastern Canada says that already more people are coming to the country than last year, particularly to British Columbia. In Vancouver elevators are to be built and next fall thousands of cars loaded with grain will be coming west. All through the province during the summer surveyors will be at work searching for the best railroad routes. What Canada needs now is wise and honest men, who will know best how this work should be done, and who will not waste her wonderful resources. There have been many repetitions in Canada of the story of Esau, who was in such a hurry to get his dinner that he sold his birthright, and he and his descendants had to live a hard life ever after. Very soon the boys of today will be men and they will find plenty of work waiting for them—work for their brains and work for their hands. And are they getting ready to do it? Not unless they do what they have to do now with all their might, and above getting all the education possible. There will be no room in Canada or the United States for laggards or triflers, men are needed to operate the great railroads, and mines, and to work the farms. Unless the boys of today who are now in these two great countries prepare to do it, they will see men from foreign countries taking the best places and doing the most honorable work.

GARDEN TIME

It is time to think of the garden and of the lawn. How to make them both a little better than last year and in doing this to think not only of how much it will improve your own property, but also what a benefit it will be to the town as a whole, because every little bit and individual improvement means an improvement to the city as a whole by making it more attractive. What to do, when and how to do it, is a big subject, because conditions of soil, exposure and size of the plot to be cultivated, speaking generally, more of the hardy perennial plants should be grown because when once planted, they are "a joy forever," coming up year after year greeting you each succeeding season like old friends. The argument has been sometimes put up that they are too expensive. This was true ten or twelve years ago, but today when a number of people have been growing these varieties for some time, there are many who would be only too glad to divide roots of all favorites like Golden Glow, Sweet William, Perennial Phlox, and other plants with a neighbor or friend. Of course all these may be grown from seed at a very small cost indeed, but as a rule perennials do not bloom the first year. Then the matter of shrubs. A few lilacs and spiraea and greatly to the appearance of the garden. The lawn should be watched carefully from the moment the snow goes. Don't take the winter covering of manure or straw off too soon and take it off by degrees. It is better for a lawn to be frozen for a week or so longer than to be continually freezing and thawing for the same length of time. When the covering is removed the next thing to do is to look out for lean patches and on these to sow more lawn grass, scratching it carefully in and watering it with a solution of any of the good commercial fertilizers. A little trouble, a little reading, a little patience and a little very healthy exercise will make anyone long for garden time.

VANCOUVER'S MAYOR MARRIED

Toronto, March 25.—A very quiet ceremony took place yesterday afternoon in St. Augustine's church, when the marriage was solemnized of Mrs. Manley, widow of the late Major F. F. Manley, to C. S. Douglas, mayor of Vancouver. Mr. and Mrs. Manley left in the afternoon for Vancouver by way of the Western States and Winnipeg.

BOWSER GOES TO EUROPE.

Vancouver, Mar. 29.—In a few days the Attorney General, Hon. W. J. Bowser, will start on a long holiday. He will cross to Europe and sail through the Mediterranean, a cruise which he expects will largely improve his health. He will see a good deal of the continent and land in England by June, where he will plead the province's interests in the provincial cases that are to come before the privy council. One of the cases that will be heard will be that of the fisheries. He will be away from Vancouver for about four months and his departmental duties will be discharged by his deputy, Mr. Maclean.

Some of these days we are going to take a vacation and sleep just to take in the morning as we feel like.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN HOME-STEAD REGULATIONS.

Any available Dominion Lands within the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

Entry must be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land is situated. Entry by proxy may, however, be made on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of an intending homesteader.

The homesteader is required to perform the conditions connected therewith under one of the following plans: (1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year for three years. (2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of the homesteader resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for, the requirements as to residence may be satisfied by each person residing with the father or mother. (3) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

Six months' notice in writing should be given to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of intention to apply for patent.

COAL—Coal mining rights may be leased for a period of twenty-one years at an annual rental of $1 per acre. Not more than 2,570 acres shall be leased to one individual or company. A royalty at the rate of five cents per ton shall be collected on the merchantable coal mined.

W. W. CORY, Deputy of the Minister of the Interior. 2-29t
